

Sympathy for Mortson family

By EVELYN MILSTED GORMLEY — Sympathy of the community is expressed to Mrs. Herman Mortson in the passing of her husband, Nov. 9 at Parkview Home, Stouffville. Besides his wife, Mr. Mortson is survived by two daughters, Joy and Margaret, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The funeral service was held Saturday from Victoria Square United Church with interment Victoria Square Cemetery.

Jean Brillinger, a patient in St. John's Convalescent Hospital, Willowdale, spent the weekend with her sister, Velma Brillinger.

Mrs. Helen Henry of Toronto enjoyed the weekend with Genevieve Bruce.

Mr. and Mrs. Rae Atkinson and family of Listowel and formerly of Bethesda, spent Sunday with friends at Gormley.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Nigh of Hagersville were weekend guests of Rev. and Mrs. Allen Heise.

Rev. and Mrs. Marlin Ressler enjoyed several days with their daughter and family in Indiana.

A Young People's Sacred Music Night will be held Friday, Nov. 25 at 8 p.m., in St. James Presbyterian Church, 101 Main Street East, Stouffville. Tim and Laurie Pugh will be participating. The public is invited.

Theatre group at Parkview

STOUFFVILLE — The residents of Parkview Village are opening their doors to all community seniors and the public for a continuing series of stage shows.

The professional Smile Theatre Company, (recipients of the prestigious 1988 Brenda Donohue Award), will present the second performance in the series, Wed., Nov. 30 at 7 p.m.

It's called 'A Child's Christmas in Brockville'.

Lorraine Steckley, the Activities Co-ordinator at Parkview Village, says the public's being invited "as part of our continuing effort to open our doors to the community."

Says Mrs. Steckley: "We want to see more programs of this calibre happening at Parkview Village, especially for Seniors, but certainly open to the entire community."

The stage presentation is sponsored by Parkview Village and The Cultural Foundation.

The other plays in the series include a musical called 'Skylarks', Jan. 23 and 'Madam Butterfly', May 6. All performances begin at 7 p.m.

For additional information call Lorraine Steckley at 640-1940. Tickets are $3 per person at the door.
