

Eighteen-year-old Jayann Horton, Uxbridge Minor Hockey Association's choice in the 1988 Fair Pageant, is the League's strongest supporter. Jayann, a graduate of Uxbridge Secondary School, is now attending Georgian College, Orillia, in the Early Childhood Education Course.

UXBRIDGE — When the Uxbridge Minor Hockey Association selected Jayann Horton as its representative in the Miss Uxbridge Fair Contest, no one questioned the choice.

Jayann was and is as much a part of the minor hockey scene as the coaches, players and referees.

We met for a first time, Saturday, where else but at the Uxbridge Arena. She was attending a fall bazaar and craft show there, hosted by the U.M.H.A.

She's our 'Girl Next Door'

"I felt flattered to be asked," Jayann said of her Pageant involvement.

Jayann admits she's her brother's biggest fan. Jayson, 15 captains the Uxbridge Bantam 'A' team.

"I go to most games," she says.

Formerly of Musselman's Lake, Jayann and her family moved to a country property on Beaver Road, (Davis Drive), when she was only eight. With sufficient acreage to accommodate two horses, she can ride to her heart's content.

Presently enrolled in Early Childhood Education at Georgian College, Orillia, Jayann commutes to and from school daily, a 90-minute drive each way.

Jayann's elementary education began at Ballantree and continued at Uxbridge Public and Joseph Gould. She retains good memories of Uxbridge High. English and Art were favorite subjects.

Jayann has an intense love for children. This affection was appreciated by the staff at Stonemoor Day Care where she has assisted part-time over a period of four years.

She also enjoys babysitting and her services are in great demand. Her kindness is much appreciated by the parents of 17-month-old Kim Anderson, residents next door.

Jayann says her association with Stonemoor and with baby Kim helped finalize her career decision. She hasn't been sorry.

She hopes to obtain her B.A. degree.

Directory deadline

STOUFFVILLE — A 1989 Community Directory is being prepared by the Whitechurch-Stouffville Chamber of Commerce.

It will be distributed to every home. It will contain up-to-date listings of all businesses, service clubs, interest groups, recreation programs, schools and churches, along with other Town-related information.

Anyone wishing to have his/her club or group included, or inform the Chamber of changes since the last Directory was published, is asked to call Always Marketing, 53 Main Street West, Stouffville, (640-7277).
