Thousands of visitors turned out for the third country collectibles show to browse through the array of crafts and other household items on sale at the event.

A Salute to... Women In Business

Dedicated to you—the Successful Business woman

NINA BROWNING
Sales Representative Leader Club

High professional standards and commitment to service has made Nina Browning a top producer in the Unionville branch. With over 10 years in real estate sales, a large portion of her business is on a referral basis... from satisfied customers... a true yardstick in measuring success. She still however enjoys meeting new people and being able to help them with the best decision to suit their lifestyle.

Real estate has certainly fulfilled Wilma's dream of meeting and serving people. Her short and most successful time in this professional business makes her more aware that you must be dedicated, honest and personally committed to real estate and to be actively involved in your community. Many transfers with a young family helps Wilma to be understanding and supportive. Top quality service is Wilma's priority... her rewards are "satisfied clients."

In November, 1983, Terri and Valerie opened the Markham Diet Center. They had found the perfect solution to not only loose weight, but keep it off.

This nutritionally balanced program offers private daily counselling in four phases, namely: conditioning (a cleansing phase), reducing, stabilization (to lock weight in) and maintenance for a full year or longer if needed. The program also includes nutrition classes.

Terri and Valerie have a very high success rate and try to instill the idea of loosing how to, eat better, exercise, and relax to live longer.

The company has recently come out with a program called Sta-b-ite, designed for people who have lost and regained weight once or more in an effort to achieve an even better success rate.
