Parade time in Uxbridge and Santa comes to town

The Fantasyland train was a novel highlight of the Uxbridge Santa Claus parade.

A manger scene float provided a reminder of the Saturday on Uxbridge's Brock St. real reason for Christmas at the parade, held

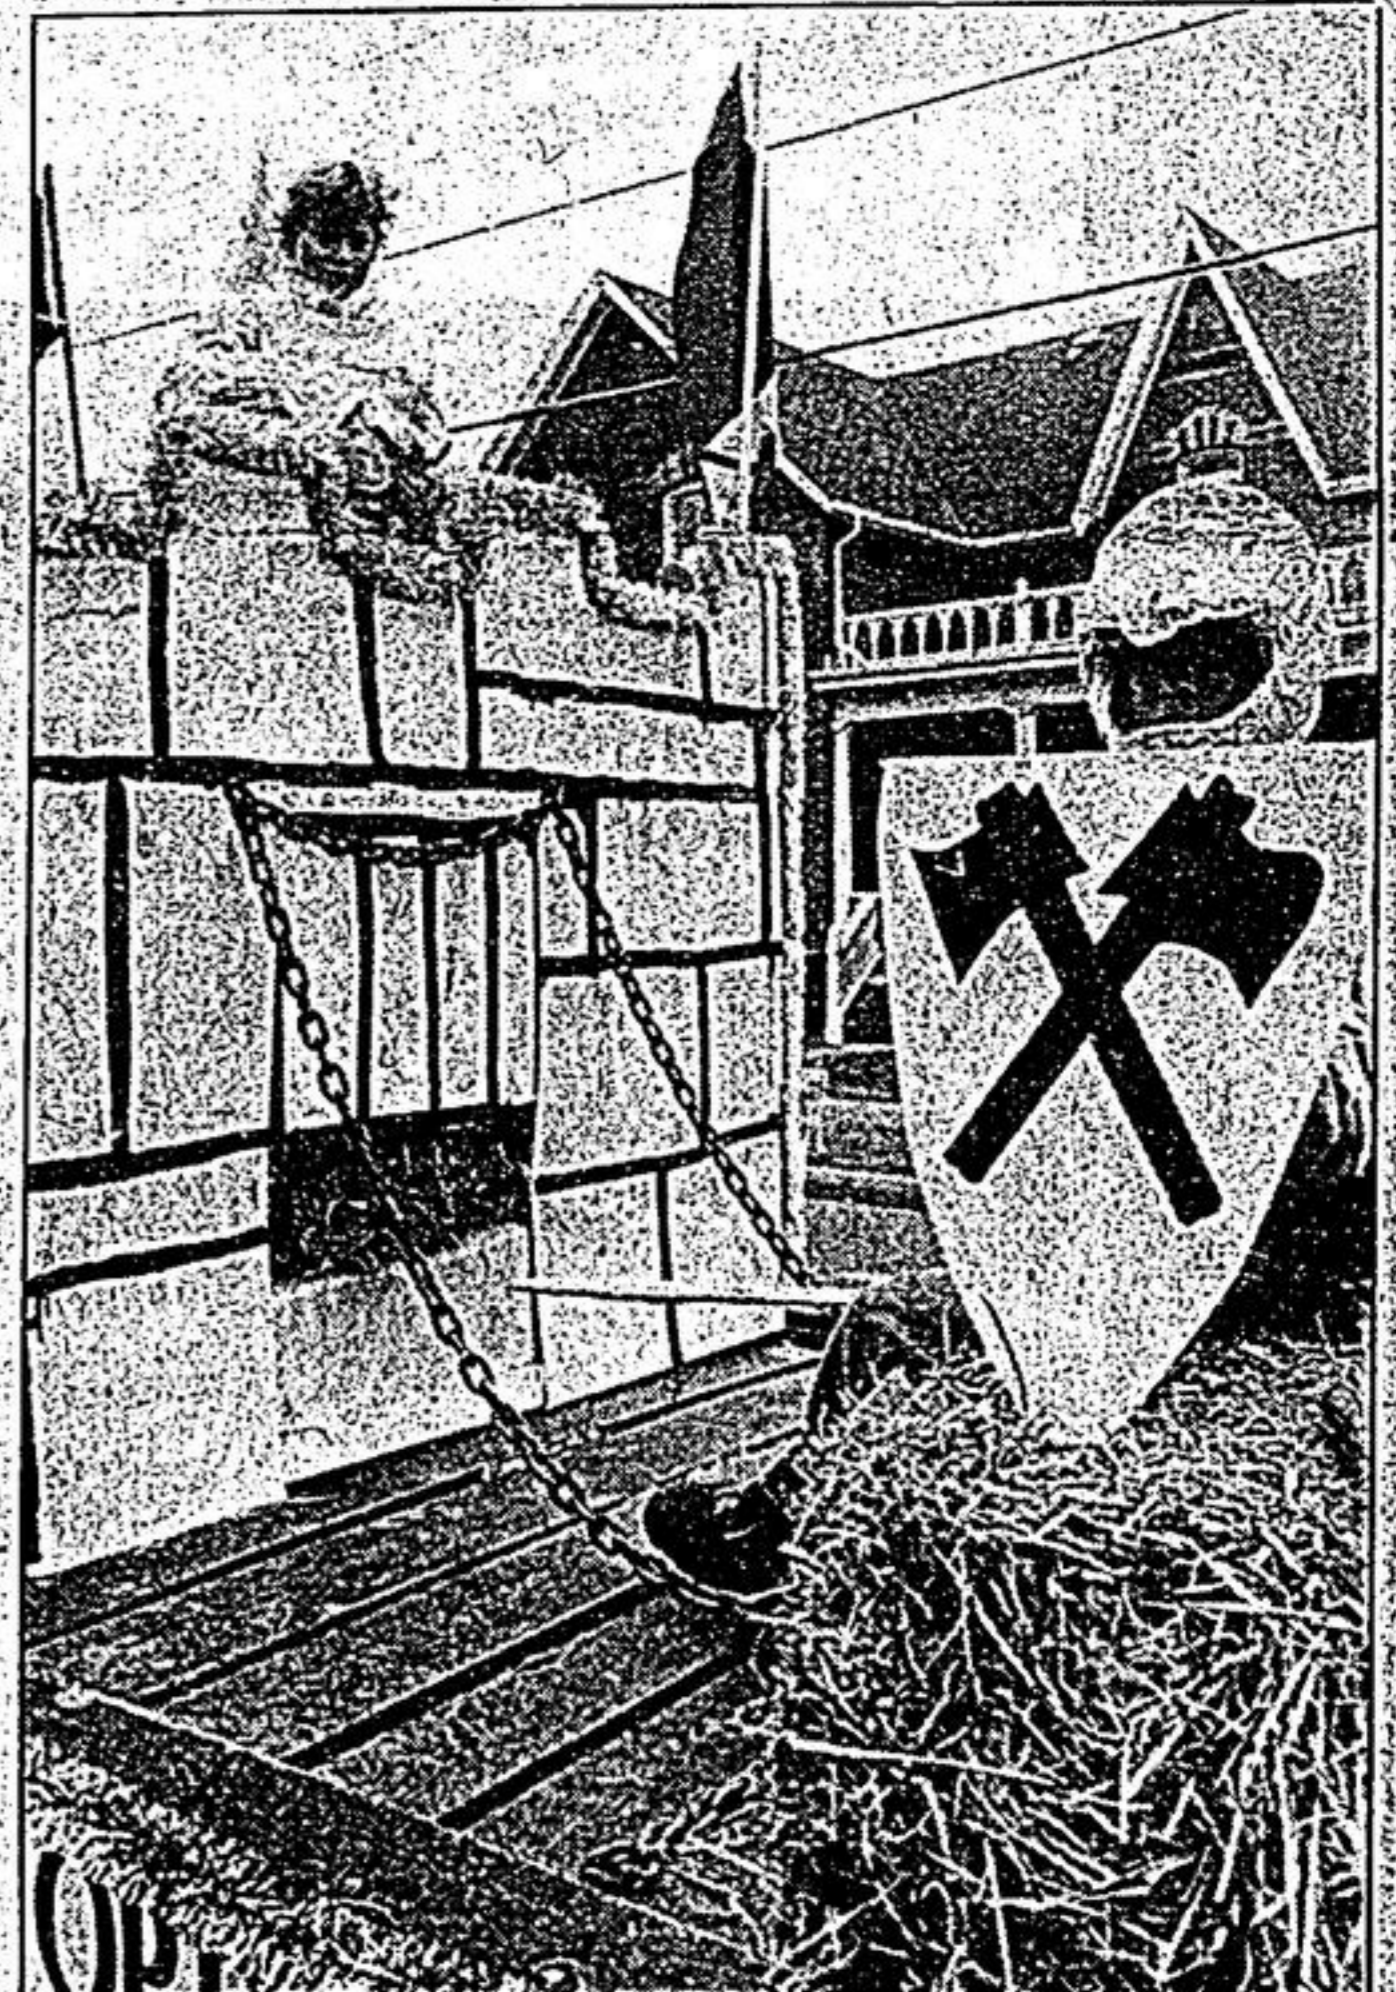

What parade would be complete without the last and most long-awaited float. Santa Claus proclaimed good wishes to Uxbridge residents as he travelled along the route accompanied by his trusty reindeer. Parade Marshal Bill Scott said this year's event was the biggest and best ever and rivals parades in similar size towns throughout Ontario.

The bucket of this loader made a handy seat for two participants in the Uxbridge Santa Claus Parade.

This princess (above left) spent the parade waiting to be rescued by her knight in shining armor. There were 60 floats in this year's parade, entered by businesses, service clubs, local groups and individuals. Below, Olympic athlete Mark Zillman waved to fans along the route.

A sleigh filled with gifts for good girls and boys was guarded by these two elves and their junior supervisor.
