Mall shoppers awarded valuable prizes

Four lucky shoppers attending the recent grand opening of Stouffville Place Mall were the recipients of valuable prizes. Frank and Delma Green (centre) and R.R. 2 Stouffville, won a trip for two to Florida. Catherine McArthur (left) of Stouffville, received a $300 shopping voucher. The presentations were made by Jorge Perez Salas of The Mount Lightning in The Mall.

Mt. Zion Church brings Christmas story to life

MT. ZION — The Christmas story of two thousand years ago will come 'alive' Sunday at Mt. Zion United Church, Pickering. Live calves, life sheep, even a live donkey will play a part in a cantata performed by a 21-voice choir under the direction of Victoria Middleton.

Other church members and adherents will also have important roles. Close to 40 people are involved with the congregation's pastor, Rev. Sharon Patterson, 'putting it all together'.

The narrator is Don Jamieson. The church shed will form a backdrop for the stable. A huge star, visible several miles, has been erected over the church. Two performances are planned, one at 6:30 and another at 8:30 p.m.

Many people have put a lot of work into the presentation, The Tribune was told. "The community has really pulled together," a caller said.

Mt. Zion Church is located on the 8th Conc. of Pickering, two miles south-west of Balsam.

Wrongly charged

Dear Editor:

I wish to comment briefly on the 'hazing' incident at Kent State University that almost caused the death of a Claremont boy.

It seems incredible to me that charges should be laid against the victims.

It's like charging an injured driver after collision with someone who disobeyed a red light. I can't help but wonder if the university (or police) are coming down hard on the victims because they're Canadians.

Sincerely,
(Mrs.) Kathryn Hunter
