

A night of beautiful music

The Grade 9 and Sr. Bands of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, along with a recently organized Jazz Choir, hosted an evening of beautiful music Thursday at Markham Theatre. Shown here is slide trombonist Karen Strachan, 17.

Fifteen-year-old Tim Ferguson is proficient on the baritone. The Grade 9 Band was led by Instrumental Music Director Peter Samuelson. The Sr. Band and the Jazz Choir were directed by Doug Walker. Enthusiastic applause followed each number.

A visit from Santa Claus concluded the concert. Holly Garbutt of Grade 9 returned Santa's Merry Christmas wish.

Wendy Houghton (left) and Sherri Breshett were part of a 21-member SDSS Jazz Choir that performed for a first time at Winter Concert '88.

Prior to going on stage, Susan Winger checked out Mike Pongracz's bow tie. Susan's in Grade 12; Mike's in Grade 11.

Honored

Mary Moffatt's pleasant smile is no longer a bonus with every coffee and hot-dog sold at the Town Rec. Centre. But her friends haven't forgotten. Mary was the guest of honor at a gathering held recently at The Maples of Ballantrae.

Beautiful!

There's still time, (if you hurry), to purchase a ticket on the beautiful queen-size hand-made quilt completed by the Craft Guild of the Stouffville Anglican Church Women. It was admired by everyone attending the A.C.W. Bazaar, Nov. 26. The draw will take place Dec. 7, (today) at 9 p.m.

From Gladys

Earlier this fall, during a visit to the Uxbridge Horticultural Society's Flower Show, I had occasion to meet Gladys Gridley, a resident 80 years young of Trinity Manor. Gladys and I enjoyed a pleasant chat and I wrote up a little piece about her in the paper.

Three weeks ago, I received two hand-knit decorative dolls, full-color replicas of Mr. and Mrs. Claus. Thanks Gladys. They'll be front and centre on our family's tree this Christmas.

New address

Durham-York MPP Bill Ballinger is now the Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Natural Resources. With this new position, comes a new address — The Whitney Block, Room 6501, Sixth Floor, 99 Wellesley Street West, Toronto, (M7A 1W3). The telephone number there is 965-7653. Mr. Ballinger has a constituency office in Mt. Albert. The numbers there are 640-7846, (Whitchurch-Stouffville) and 473-5103, (Uxbridge).

Can you help?

Mrs. Lloyd Sibley, Parkview Village, is expecting her daughter Geraldine home following several weeks in hospital. Mrs. Sibley requires the assistance of people to stay with Gerry five nights a week. They would be paid for this service. If you can help, call Mrs. Sibley at 640-7405.

Flying again

It's good to see the Canadian flag flying again at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. I was afraid a John Turner supporter might blame its demise on free trade.

400th game

Wes Jarvis, son of professional plowman Herb Jarvis of Agincourt and a forward with the Newmarket "Saints", played in his 400th career American Hockey League game last week. As of Nov. 28, Wes had 11 goals and 14 assists for 25 points; second best on the club and only one back of winger Marty Dallman. In his career, Wes has collected 181 goals and 327 assists for 508 points.

Filling up

The Tribune's lost and found box is filled almost to overflowing. It contains everything from glasses to wallets plus dozens of keys. We'll soon have to 'clean house' so come in and look over the collection.

Mayor's recycling dream becomes a reality

Whitchurch-Stouffville Mayor Fran Sainsbury was all smiles Thursday when the Town's recycling program became a reality. Mayor Sainsbury along with Councillor Jim Sanders and former Councillor Jim Rae have been strong promoters of the project.
