

Atom Clippers 5-2 victors

Kyle Norton has found his scoring touch. The red-headed star of last year's Stouffville Novice Clippers took a few games to adjust to the faster Atom level this fall, but is now making up for lost time.

He hit for a hat trick Friday night at the Recreation Centre, leading the Atom Clippers to a 5-2 win over Lindsay. His first goal opened the scoring midway through the first period.

The visitors tied things up in the period's last minute, but a goal by Chad Dickinson restored the Stouffville lead in the second frame.

Lindsay would square it again late in the second, but Norton triggered a three-goal third period outburst, with Dickinson assisting.

Graham Crowder set up John McKinnon for the fourth Clipper goal, with Norton notching his third marker from Peter Smith to wrap things up. At a weekend tournament in East Gwillimbury, the Atoms were ousted in two straight games, losing to Georgetown 3-1, and then falling 6-1 to Clearwater.

Swimmers qualify

Uxbridge Swim Club members saw their hard work pay off, as nine Level I competitors qualified in the annual North York Aquatic Club's Youth Cup, held last weekend.

Many of the nine Uxbridge swimmers — Kelly Bryon, Maggie Evans, Drew Ferraro, Erin Hannah, Tara Hannah, Tyler Hannah, Chrissy Henderson, Sandy Mark and Matthew Slater — swam personal bests at the event.

And they were among some Norton scored Stouffville's only goal in the first game, with Roger McMann connecting in the second contest.

The Atoms play at home again on Friday, Dec. 16 when they take on Lindsay.

prestigious company — more than 800 of Canada's top young swimmers qualified for the competition, which, over the last eight years has helped prepare present and future Olympic swimmers.

Seventy teams participated from across Canada and the U.S., including entries from Alberta, Saskatchewan, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Quebec, Newfoundland and the Northwest Territories.

Lee Wideman, Jason Resor, and Jay Hause all performed well, as did forwards Steve Emes, Geoff Smith, Jermain Franklin, Dan McNaught and Darren Zellers.

But what pleased coach Reesor was the fact there wasn't a weak link in the chain.

The Stouffville Pee Wees are hosting a tournament at the Rec Centre this Saturday starting at 8 a.m.

Potential is there for Pee Wee Clippers, coach Reesor says

By BRUCE STAPLEY For Stouffville Pee Wee Clippers coach Don Reesor, a hockey team is only as good as its most glaring weakness.

And the coach of the 1987-88 All-Ontario Champion Stouffville Atoms liked what he saw Monday at the Recreation Centre as his charges held a determined Port Perry team to a 1-1 tie.

The draw, following on the heels of the previous week's strong showing at a tournament at Saltfleet, left Reesor with a positive attitude towards the Pee Wees, who started the season slowly.

"We really gelled last week at the tournament. The potential is there now," he said.

David Spoorenberg put the Credit Union Clippers out front in the first period on an unassisted effort, but the visitors came back to knot things up with two minutes left in the period.

From that point on, it was strong defence and tireless forechecking for both teams as the action went end to end.

Gred Sandiford and Steve Servinis shared the goaltending assignment for Stouffville, with both contributing a solid effort. Servinis played despite a sore finer courtesy of a wicked shot blocked during a practice the day before the game.
