Gertrude celebrates at 75th birthday party

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH LINE—Just in time for this frigid spell of below-zero weather! It was a special day for a special person on a special anniversary. Miss Gertrude Morgason was the honored guest at a surprise 75th birthday party Sunday, Nov. 27.

Host of the gathering was brother Lorne and his wife Hazel of Ringwood. About 25 family members and friends were assembled including aunts from Toronto and Dann Filyer of Brantford.

The gift was special, too, a fur coat and hat along with many good wishes. A belated Happy Birthday, Gertrude, from the rest of us.

A further honor was paid her at the December meeting of the UCW held at the home of Pat Redwood when she was presented with a birthday cake.

I liked the message on the Gribble's Goodwood Gardens bulletin. If you haven't passed by you may not have heard. "It's a Girl!"

The announcement was made for the new member of the Hockley family, little Rachael Brittany was born Tuesday, Dec. 6 at the Uxbridge Cottage Hospital.

The proud parents are Dale and Heather (Gribble) Hockley. A first grandchild for Harold and Marlene and a first granddaughter for Ken and Beatrice Hockley.

On Dec. 18 the United Church service will be held at 10 a.m. The Scugog Singers will bring messages in song and Pastor Nancy Waterman will bring the message.

After the usual morning services in the Baptist Church on Sunday, Dec. 18, a group will visit the Seniors' homes in Stouffville.

to spread a little Christmas Cheer to some of the older folk in the community.

Word has been received from the Howard and Kathy Pike family that little Jim has a baby sister, born Dec. 12 in Coquitlam, B.C., where they now live. Congratulations and a welcome to little Esther Violet.

Mention should be made of the Carollers who will be out next Wednesday evening, Dec. 21. You are invited to join with them as they meet at the United Church.

A team of horses will draw the hay wagon as they tour the district. Refreshments and fellowship will follow at the church.

We are pleased to report that Anthony Mezenberg, seriously injured in a car accident in October, is steadily improving and has been moved to Riverdale Hospital where he will be receiving therapy. He is in Room 216. The hospital is on St. Matthews St.

Percy Pugh has returned home after a routine checkup of two weeks in Centenary Hospital in Scarborough.
