Seventeen-year-old Heather Legault, Millard Street, Stouffville, has her heart set on a modelling career.

She's already taken the first important step. She's a graduate of the renowned John Casablanca Modelling Agency, Toronto, receiving her diploma following a six-month course.

Heather's our 'Girl Next Door'.

"My mother and dad have been a great help," Heather says. She's also appreciative of encouragement provided by SDSS staff teacher Mrs. Stamatou.

"I was once very shy," she admits. "Mrs. Stamatou helped build up my confidence."

Heather voices respect for the modelling profession.

"The girls I've met are very nice," she says, "not snobs like many people think." They're also very pretty. "There's a lot of competition."

Whether or not she makes it to 'the big time', Heather urges others to consider modelling as a career.

"The course helps in so many ways," she says, "it's a great confidence builder."

Heather received her elementary education at Summitview. There, she was active in track and field. Current interests include reading and writing. English is her favorite subject. "Mr. Hodgson's great," she says of her English teacher.

Heather's travelled extensively. Holidays have included trips to Florida, California and Mexico. Australia and Hawaii are still on her vacation wish-list.

Yes, Heather has a boyfriend. Dave Collins lives near Vivian.
