

Town firefighters earn their stripes

Whitchurch-Stouffville firefighters earned their stripes this week, successfully battling three serious blazes in four days. Here, they pour water onto the roof of a home owned by Bill and Mary Dobson, Hwy. 48, Ballantrae. The fire, of unknown origin, caused an estimated $150,000 damage.

Firefighter David Morrison, (right), assists volunteer Al Sisco in hitching up his air-pak before entering the residence of Joe and Linda Randolph, Kennedy Road, R.R. 4, Stouffville. The blaze, Sunday morning, caused $10,000 damage.

Ted McLennan, (left), of Whitchurch-Stouffville Fire Station II, gives volunteer Scott Watson a helping hand with his oxygen equipment. Altogether, brigade members rolled up a total of ten hours' fire-fighting time at three locations.
