Still time to enter Claremont pageant

With only a week to go before the opening of Claremont's Winter Carnival, girls interested in entering the Snow Queen Pageant had better hurry.

So far, six entries have been received while six more are giving the contest serious consideration, Carnival chairman Shelagh Mulveney told The Tribune.

Entries must be high school students from Claremont and area. Along with their applications, they should include a poem or a paragraph related to the joys of living in the Claremont community.

A queen and two snow princesses will be chosen.

Prizes include a color portrait session with Chuck Shumilak of Pickering; a color analysis by Maureen Foxton of Brougham and a ride in a luxurious white Century Limousine.

The Queen and her attendants will take part in pageant activities Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday.

Last year's Queen, Christina Cece, will crown her successor.

"By pageant night, we're hoping for 12 participants," Shelagh said.

The pageant organizer is Debbie Storey, (649-3841).

RESALE VALUES AFTER ONE YEAR OF DRIVING.

Excel in Capitalism.

Buying a new Excel is a prime example of how to get a good return on your investment.

As you can see from the chart, Excel is right up there with the best of them for resale value.*

This will not come as a surprise to Excel owners. They've had considerable experience in getting more for less.

Starting at $7,795, the Excel represents a minimum investment for the maximum return, with more standard features than any car in its class - over 50 of them.

And it's nice to know that no matter how long and hard you drive your Excel through thick and thin, there's a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.
