

Saturday is softball sign-up

This Saturday (Feb. 4) is Stouffville's first day of registration for the upcoming minor softball season. A second date is Sat. Feb. 11. The location is the Town Recreation Centre from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

As a convenience to parents of players residing on the west side of Whitchurch-Stouffville, a registration day is scheduled for Feb. 7 from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Vandorf Community Hall.

Parents unable to meet this deadline may register their sons or daughters at Stouffville on Feb. 11.

The age classification extends from 5 to 20 years as of Jan. 1, 1989. The fee schedule begins at $40 per child, varying with the age groups.

The break-down follows:
T-Ball, ages 5 to 7 years, ($40);
Mites and Squirts, ages 8 to 11

Ross Photo continues to log wins

The George Ross Photo team continued its winning streak in Whitchurch-Stouffville girls hockey atom division play as they downed MPH Earthmoving 5-0 last week.

Dawn Williamson made several outstanding saves to earn her shutout.

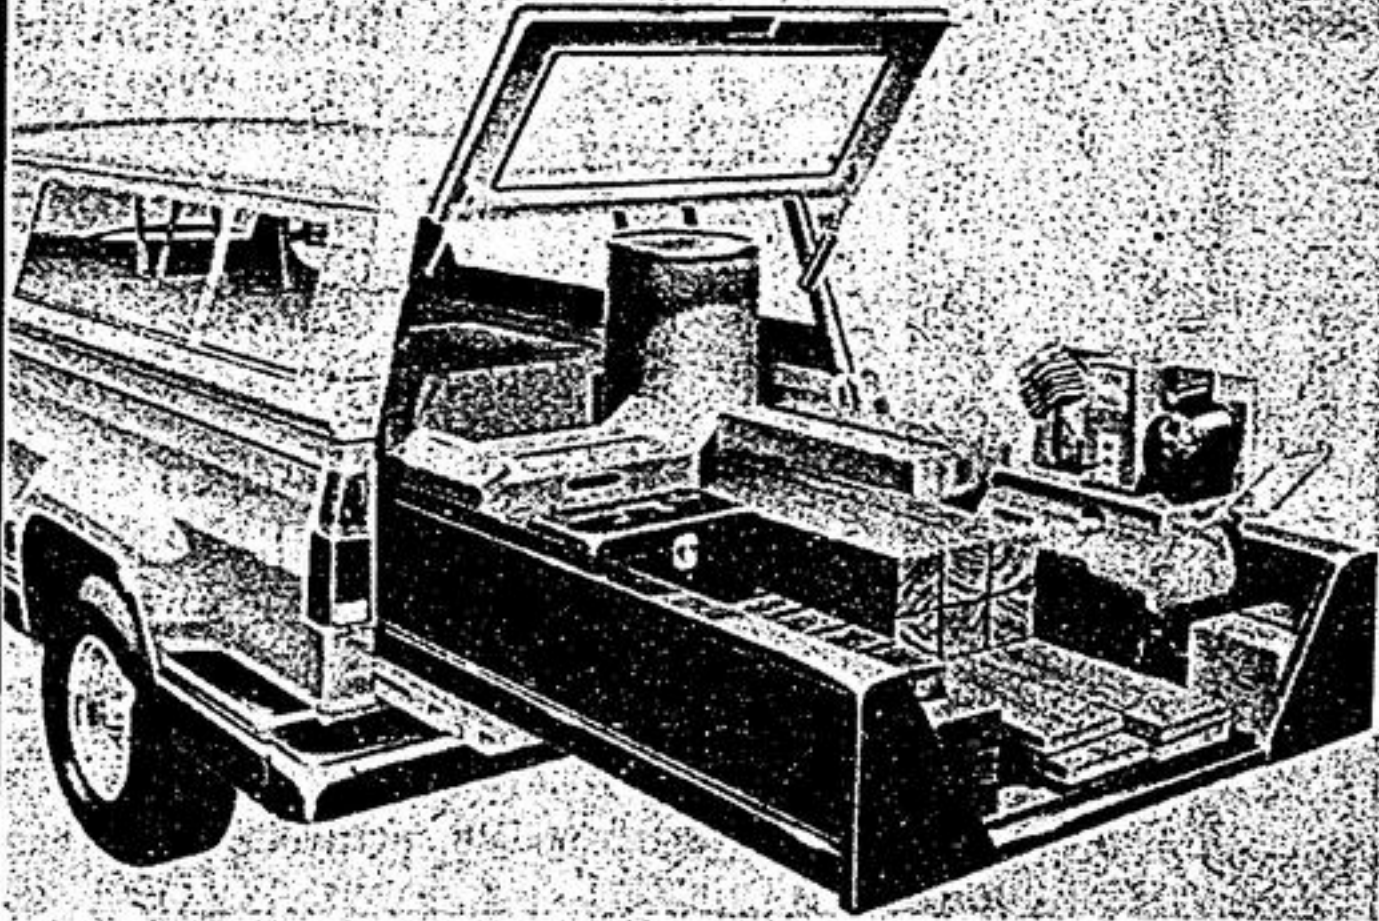

Nicole Bardell and Stephanie Summerhill led the Ross team with two goals each. Kirsten Fraser added a single and also had an assist. Bardell and Jennifer Turner also assisted.

Bunny's Flowers turned the power on and rolled over Stouffville Bowling 7-1. Patricia Davies played goal for the Bunny's Flowers, and stopped several good chances by the Bowling team.

Laura Winterstein continued her torrid scoring pace, notching four goals and one assist. Julia Comito added two goals and Leanne Lehman a single.

The lone goal for Stouffville Bowling was scored by Cynthia McCaul.
