

Seriously injured in crash

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH LINE — Cam and Alice Stewart motored to Owen Sound, Saturday to visit her sister, Sharon, a patient in hospital there. Sharon was critically injured in an auto accident Feb. 8. Formerly of Stouffville, Arlan and Sharon Galbraith moved to the Owen Sound area where Sharon's been employed as a nurse. Although still on life support systems, she's showing signs of improvement. Her many friends wish her a complete recovery.

Tom Lewis had a narrow escape from serious injury last week in an accident at the corner of Regional Road 21 and the Fourth Line of Uxbridge. Tom was a passenger in a station wagon. The driver of a tandem Kawartha Dairy truck ditched his vehicle in an attempt to avoid collision.

Uxbridge Mayor Gerri-Lynn O'Connor was the guest speaker at a Goodwood Women's Institute meeting last week. Everyone agreed the Twp. Council can profit by a woman's guidance. Her address, while not entirely encouraging, was very informative. Many changes are anticipated for the area.

The Goodwood, Claremont and Altona Women's Institutes are hosting a Micro-Wave Seminar in late March. Tickets, ($2), are available from all W.I. members.

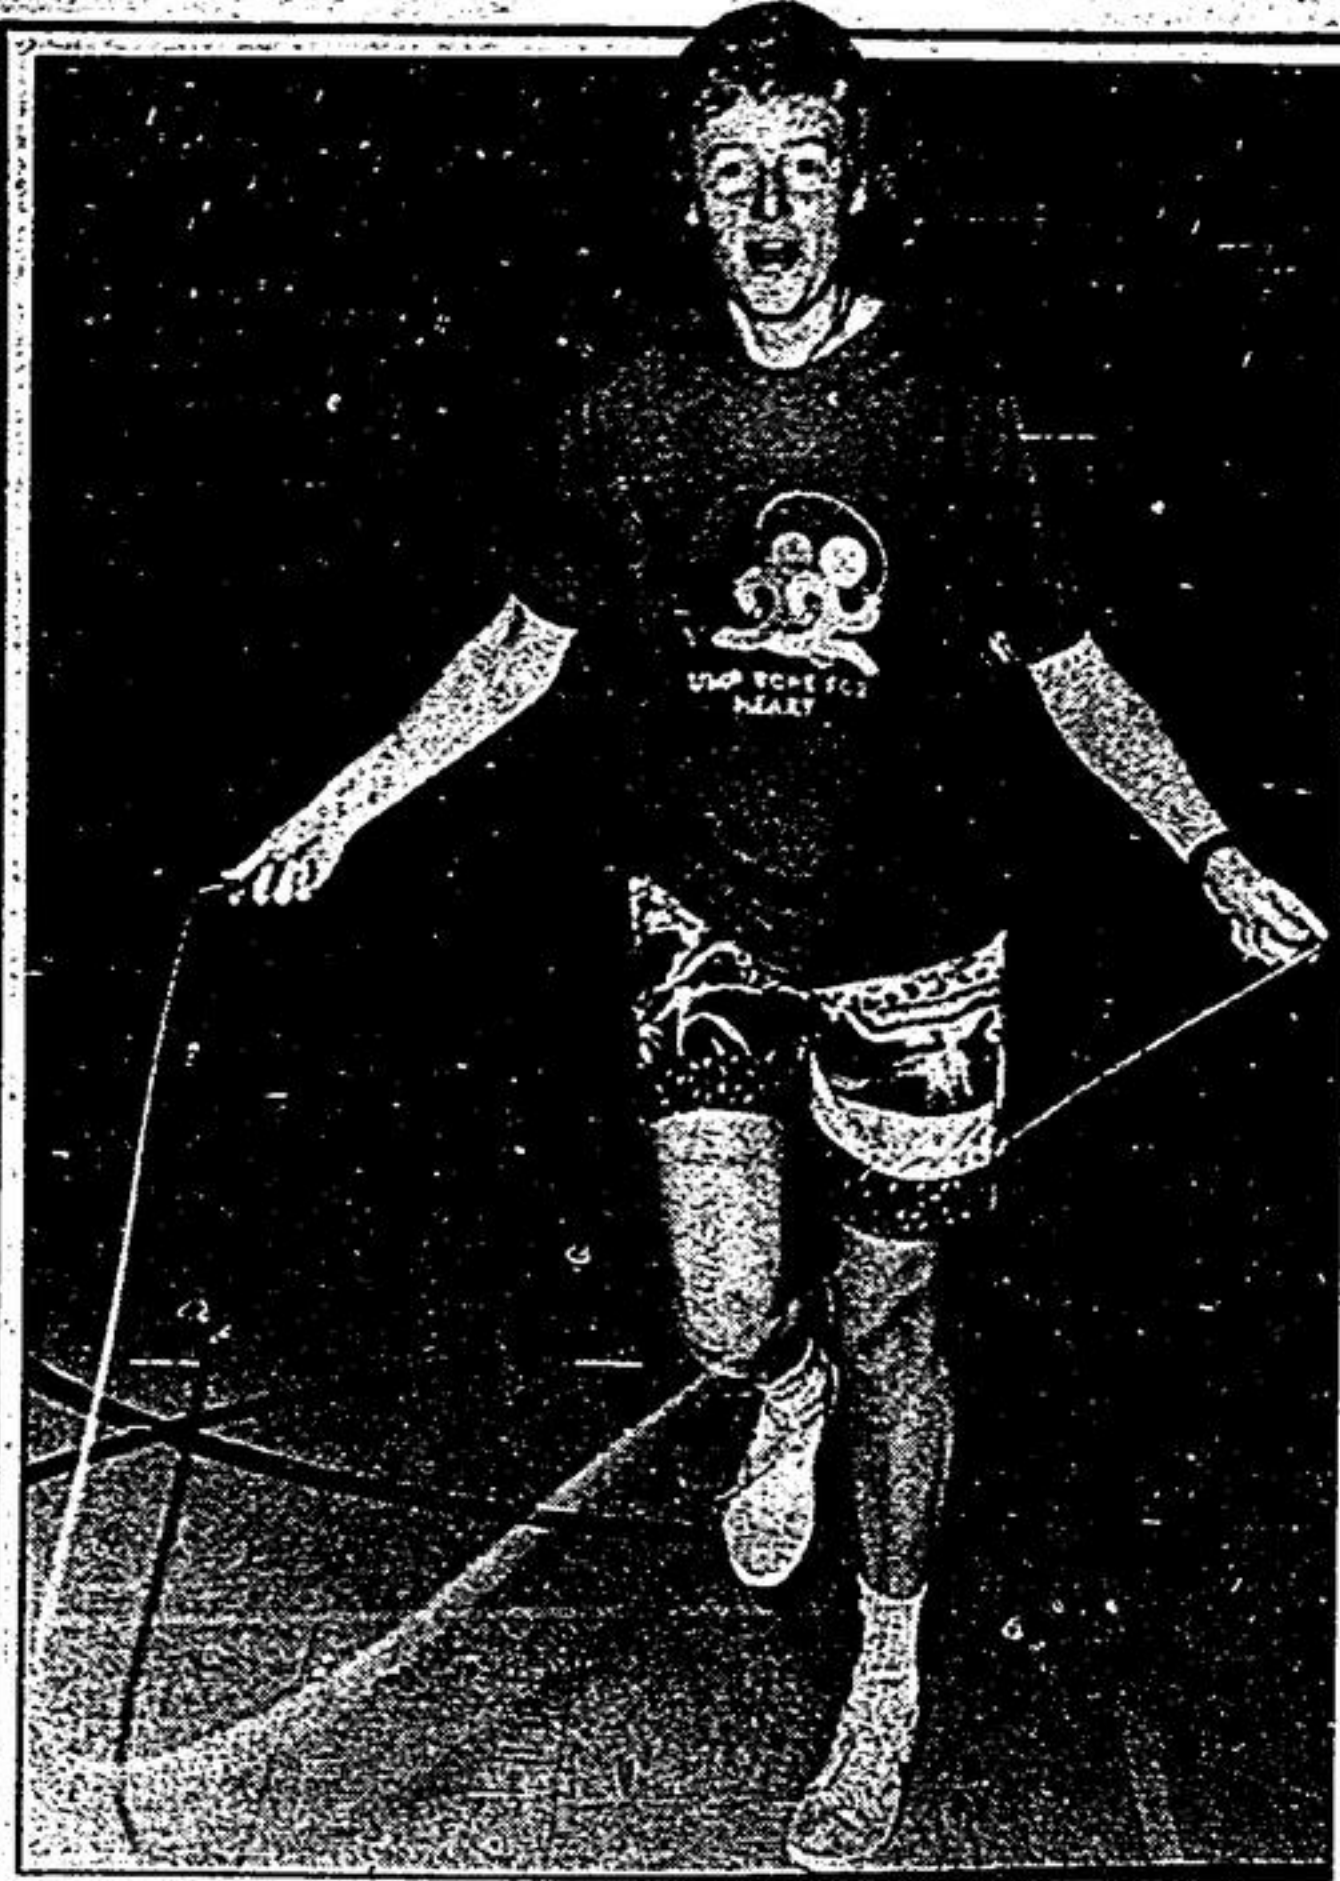

Luncheon at Legion

STOUFFVILLE — It's a luncheon date.

The Stouffville Legion Ladies Auxiliary will host their annual hot luncheon, Wed., Feb. 22 in the Legion Hall, Ninth Line North.

Servings will take place from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Tickets, ($6 per person), are available at The Tribune Office, (640-2100), and from Gladys Clarkson, (640-1941), and Marion Murphy, (640-2443).

School jumpin' for a cause

Goodwood Public School was really jumping Thursday afternoon, and all for a good cause. Teachers and students joined forces in a 'Jump Rope For Heart' campaign, hopeful of raising $6,000. Displaying enthusiastic agility is teacher Tessie Dempster.
