Melissa Dawson leads squad in 3-1 downing of Photo team

The MPH Earthmoving team upset the George Ross Photo team 3-1 in Atom Girls' house league play.

Melissa Dawson led the Earthmoving crew with two goals while newcomer Jill Villeneuve scored the insurance marker late in the third period. Lindsay Upton played a strong game and picked up an assist. Shyla Brennan made several good stops between the pipes for MPH.

Tavannah Herman, Krista Dudley, Morgan Dubkowski, Sheri Bearden, Katie White and Kristi Ingram all played a strong defensive game.

The George Ross team currently is holding down first place by a point. The team got off to a slow start and could only notch one goal, scored by Nicole Bardell with Jody Grabiec assisting. Kirsten Frazer played a strong game in net for the Ross team.

Bunny's Flowers hopped over the Stouffville Bowling team 7-4 with Laura Winterstein and Julia Comito combining to score all of the Bunny's goals. Laura drove in four and Julia potted three with an assist. Leanne Lehman assisted on one goal. Cheryl Norton held the Bowling team to four goals as she made several outstanding saves.

Goalie Jennifer MacDonald stopped what looked like sure goals as she kicked several drives aside made by Bowling forwards Kelly Ward, Kathy Tait, Cynthia McCaul, Danielle and Lauren Clarkson.

The Atom Girls Rep team was a finalist in the Cobourg tournament.

In the first game Stouffville dropped Brampton 5-2. Brampton opened the scoring in the first period. Stouffville went ahead before the end of the period on goals by Julia Comito and Laura Winterstein. Laura made it 3-1 in the second period. In the third, Julia and Laura scored again. Stouffville used two goalies —

Cheryl Norton and Dawn Williamson. Both played a good game.

In the second game, Stouffville took on the host team and defeated it 3-1. Julia gave Stouffville the lead on a shorthanded goal, assisted by Stephanie Summerhill. Cobourg tied it up in the second period.

In the third period, Stephanie scored on a breakaway. Lindsay scored the insurance goal on a good shot from the slot. Goalenders Patricia Davies and Williamson made several good saves.

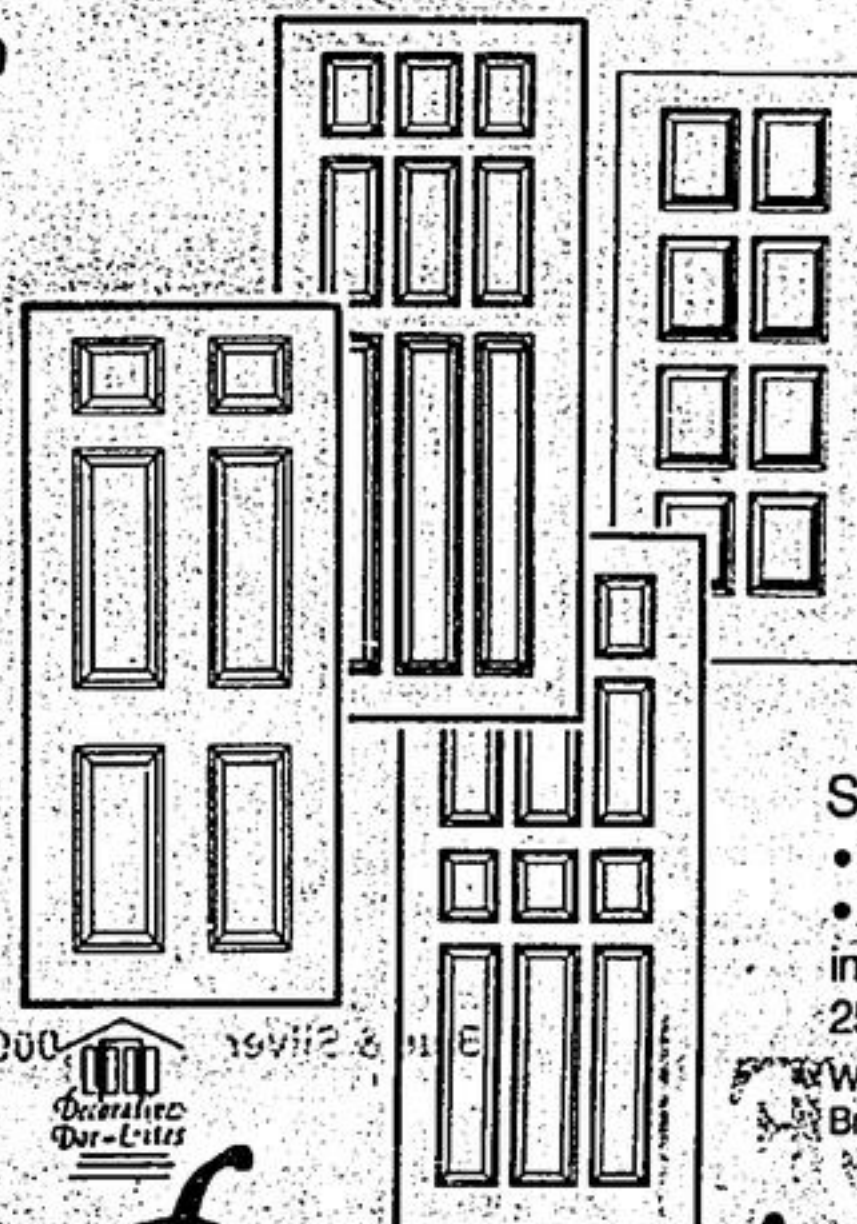

In the final game Stouffville had to face United Counties (Peterborough) which had won its games by high scores. The Stouffville team started slowly in this game and were quickly behind. By midway in the second period the score was 3-0 for United Counties.

Laura scored on a breakaway late in the second period to lead a comeback.
