

It's fun being Canadian, eh?

Audience member Logan Anderson could 'bearly' contain herself during the show. She brought along her Teddy Bear so they could both enjoy the fun.

Complete with lumberjack gear, ponytails and honest-to-goodness Canadian freckles, Sarah Zek went for a hike along the Bruce Trail in one skit.

Heather Kennedy put all she could offer into her performance. She sported a western outfit with cowgirl boots for this number.

Talented students at Stouffville's Orchard Park Public School entertained friends and family last week with a night of Canadian-based fun.

Entitled "This Land's Your Land," the show took audience members on a cross-country trip highlighted by songs, skits and dances. Emceed by who else? Bob and Doug McKenzie (Greg Nothey and Shawn Sargeant), the show began with a piece entitled "Hitch Hiking to the Maritimes" and a skit that was set through Canada in a whirlwind tour of pure entertainment.

Skits about Ontario's "Maple Leaf Stamp," "Free to be Old Alberta Now," "Billie Jean Jane" and British Columbia were vignettes offered by the students. It was capped off by the school's junior choir, which sang a selection of popular songs.

The show was performed by students in Grade 4 to 6 at the school.

The province of Quebec was honorably recognized by Marissa Dolson and friends during a song performed by the students in French. Canada from coast to coast was illustrated by students at the event.
