'Girl Next Door'

Ballantrae teacher shaped Kelly's life

By JIM THOMAS
When 16-year-old Kelly Sheridan was asked what person or persons had most influenced her life, she answered without hesitation, "my parents and Mr. Johnstone."

The first was not surprising: Brian and Laura, son Jamie, and daughter Kelly are a close-knit family who share many common interests.

But Mr. Johnstone? Kelly, quick to explain, "He (Barry Johnstone) was my public school teacher at Ballantrae from Grade 5 through Grade 8. He encouraged me that's why I'm so involved at Stouffville High. I still drop by for visits."

Even now, she recalls mixed feelings of joy and sadness on graduation night.

Kelly's our 'Girl Next Door'.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan and family moved from Unionville, to Iroquois Drive, Ballantrae, 12 years ago. They share their lovely home with three cats and two dogs.

"We got one (cat), and it just kind of snowballed," laughs Kelly, pointing to her mother as the infectious feline lover in the family.

Mrs. Sheridan admits it's true. Their backyard feeder also attracts a multitude of birds.

Volleyball, basketball and lunchtime badminton are Kelly's favorite high school sports. Music and Science are her choice of subjects.

She plays the clarinet in the S.S. Band.

When it comes to teachers, Mr. McKnight and Miss Milton top her popularity poll.

Kelly holds a part-time position at The Maples of Ballantrae. She hopes to remain on staff this summer. The Sheridan family has enjoyed several exciting trips, together including a visit to Expo '86 in Vancouver and to Prince Edward Island in 1988. The Yukon's still on their holiday itinerary. They hope to make it there in a couple of years.

Kelly appreciates her close circle of friends. She notes, however, that living in Ballantrae puts considerable pressure on her parents to provide transportation.

Still, she enjoys the quiet and privacy that her home in the hamlet provides.

A sixteen-year-old Kelly Sheridan, Iroquois Drive, Ballantrae, is a Grade 10 student at S.D.S.S. She credits Barry Johnstone with influencing her life. "He encouraged me to do different things," she says. "That's why I'm so involved at Stouffville High." — Jim Thomas
