Hockey is a part of life for top Stouffville player Karen Brodie

By KATE GILDERDALE
When Cliff Dunkeld describes Karen Brodie as one of Stouffville's top female hockey players, you know he's talking about a talented athlete.

The 25-year-old says she's been involved since the age of 10.

"I moved up from Toronto and found a lot of girls here were into hockey, so I just started playing too. It was probably Gloria Mintz who got me involved. She played and told me about it, so I went."

There was nothing else to do in the winter then, she states, and a lot of the girls she went to school with were also involved.

Karen started out on a house league team, "that's all there was then, but in the last three years we've had one rep team." Now a member of the Betz Pools Senior 'C' team, she usually plays once or twice a week locally.

"We're in the North Metro League. We play every Sunday night from 9 p.m. to 10 p.m. and we've got one tournament left which is the April 14 provincials."

They usually have the same team every year, Karen notes. "This year we only had seven

KAREN BRODIE
family supportive

skaters, but we picked up two new ones."

With limited ice time in town, she plays regularly in Toronto. "I do a lot of reffing. They have a league there and they'll phone and ask how many games you want to do a week."

Asked how often she plays, Karen grins ruefully and replies, "too much."

She gets a call on Monday to confirm her schedule for the week and usually ends up playing Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday nights. "For the last two months it's been at least three times a week." When she goes, she says, it's usually to play four games in a night. "We finish around 11 or 11:30," she estimates.

Although she loves playing in Toronto, hockey would come before refereeing, she stresses.

Her decision to play wasn't influenced by her family. "I have a brother and sister, my brother plays but my sister doesn't." Her parents have been very supportive though, "they come and watch me play." As far as she knows, her father was not a hockey player.

She's pleased to see younger female players coming back into the game, and feels they get a lot of community support.

"If they're interested it's good they're being encouraged. I know Cliff's worked hard to keep it going."

Among her happiest memories she says, were "winning the provincials and the first year we played in the league. Last year we won the league."

The benefits of playing go beyond the physical aspects of the game. "We get together and socialize as well. You make a lot of friends."

She has no immediate plans to hang up her skates, admits Karen. "I'll play for a couple more years yet."

With the hockey season winding down, Karen will be gearing up to play slowpitch and ball hockey, as well as continuing to work in the family accounting business.

"I'll probably get my CGA in the next couple of years," she says.

Working with her family is "usually pretty good; there are some odd days, but there are a lot of benefits too."

When Karen decides to call it a day, one thing's certain, she'll leave a big gap in Stouffville's lineup of top female hockey players.

Laura Winterstein still on roll in Atom league

Claremont's Laura Winterstein continues to burn up the ice in the Atom Division of the Ladies Hockey League.

Laura rapped in three goals and led Bunny's Flowers to a 4-0 victory over George Ross Photo in playoff competition.

Julia Comito notched one and assisted on another.

Cheryl Norton earned the shut-out.

Jody Grabiec made several good stops for the Ross team and kept the score respectable.

Stephanie Summerhill, Nicole Bardell, Kirsten Fraser, Dawn Williamson, Jenny Turner, Kim Mashke, Leandre Forsyth and Carrie Kirby all tried to dent Cheryl Norton's armor without success.

Close Contest

Melisa Dawson was the hero for MPH Earthmoving, scoring two goals including the winner as MPH edged Stouffville Bowling 2-1.

Melisa's tie-breaker came with less than four minutes to go in the game. Sheri Bearden assisted on both tallies.

Cynthia McCaul blinked the light for the Bowlers' lone goal.

Basketball starts again

The York Region Summer Basketball League will resume May 2 and continue through July 27 at Huron Heights Secondary School.

Participants 16 years and over are invited.

The chief organizer is Nabil Tadros of Richmond Hill.

The league will comprise eight teams with ten players per team. The sign-up cost is $90 plus $20 for standard league shirts.

The league will operate Tuesday evenings only with two weekend tournaments planned.

Interested persons are asked to call 883-4704.
