

Alma Jean Reesor

Love for her family not a hidden talent

MARKHAM — Hundreds gathered at the Dixon-Garland Funeral Home in Markham and later attended service at the Wideman Mennonite Church following the sudden passing of Mrs. Lewis Reesor, March 27, in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill.

She was 69. Mrs. Reesor, the former Alma Jean Fretz, was born March 31, 1921, the daughter of Samuel and May Fretz, Lot 23, rear Conc. 7, Markham.

At age 13, she was converted under the ministry of Rev. A.J. Metsler and, following baptism, became a member in the congregation of Wideman Mennonite Church, Oct. 28, 1934.

She attended Altona Public School, Stouffville High School and Niagara Christian College.

For a period of one year, she taught in a one-room school at Markstay, Ont.

On Aug. 28, 1947, Alma married Lewis Reesor and to that union was born five children — the late Erle Reesor who married Helen Hisey; their son Jesse and his brother Nicolas; Harold who married Lynn Robb and their children, Mathew, Erin, Linnet, Neil, Phillip and Stuart; Marvin who married Beverly Miller and their children, Pamela and Kevin; Martha; and Mary Lou who married Svend deBruyn.

Alma had three brothers and two sisters — the late Norman Fretz; Orval of Stouffville; Levi of Oakwood; Lois, (Mrs. Maurice Hoover), Markham and Mary Ann, (Mrs. Beland Schlabach) of Vineland.

There are ten grandchildren. Alma will be remembered for the abundant love she bestowed on members of her family and friends.

She showed this love in many ways.

She enjoyed preparing special foods. Folks from far and near were always made welcome at her table.

Her love of nature was evident. From the herbs she grew and used in her food preparations, to the plants and flowers she attended both inside her home and out. Alma loved listening to the birds and instilled this appreciation in her children.

Alma was a lady of many hidden talents. She was a carpenter and an electrician. In fact, she could fix almost anything.

She made many beautiful quilts and blankets for her family.

Her grandchildren were special. She was interested in whatever interested them. Often she would bake special things and take them with her when she visited.

Rows of canning filled her basement shelves.

Alma was a prayerful lady, always concerned for the spiritual welfare of her family.

She enjoyed reading and writing scripture verses.

Music was important to her also. She had many favorite hymns and could often be heard singing them as she went about her daily chores.

Laughter was the best medicine she knew. It was a vital ingredient in the stroke recovery classes she attended.

Rev. Jim Shantz conducted the funeral service, March 31 with spring interment Wideman Cemetery. Pall-bearers, all nephews, were — Glenn Fretz, Ed Hoover, Graham Fretz, Robt. Burkholder, Dan Reesor and Keith Reesor.

Hymn-sing

The Watchmen Quartet from Kitchener will provide the special music at a hymn-sing, Sunday, at Wideman Mennonite Church. Time of the service is 7 p.m.

That professional touch

The spring musical, held annually at Goodwood Public School, has become a community event. Thanks to GiGi Fisher and her committee, the costumes give the performance a professional touch. Here, Mrs. Fisher checks out

Mathew Gregory's robes. Mathew plays the part of King Richard in the story of Robin Hood. Shyla Brennan, (Prince John), looks on. Show dates are April 13 and 14.
