"Girl Next Door"

Julie hopes to serve as a camp counselor

By JIM THOMAS
 Julie Coleman has her bronze medallion in swimming. She's now going for her bronze cross. Why bother? This next level of accomplishment, she explains, will give her the credentials required to serve as counselor at a camp near Minden this summer. Following an ongoing association for the past five seasons, Julie's looking forward to the added responsibility. "She's our Girl Next Door."

Julie does all her swim training at the Markham Centennial Pool, McCowan Road. Her parents, Roger and Gail Coleman, and brother Cameron, moved to Rosedale Court, Ballantrae, seven years ago. They'll soon be moving again. The family's building a new home at The Maples of Ballantrae. They hope to have it completed sometime in June.

This new place of residence will make it even handier for Julie to help out at The Maples restaurant. The people are really friendly there, she says. "It's a good place to work." Although Julie would like to see more courses available at Stouffville High, she still speaks well of her school. She also retains good memories of her senior years at Ballantrae. "I loved it there," she admits. She was co-president of the Students' Council. "Gym" and English are favorite subjects.

Swimming, basketball, volleyball, softball and badminton are favorite sports. Julie says she appreciates the guidance provided by her parents and the help of a close circle of friends. She mentions specifically Karen Carr, Susie Anderson, Sarah Clark and Terrill Junkin as "special". "I'm very lucky," she says.

Julie Coleman, Rosedale Court, Ballantrae, holds a bronze medallion in swimming and is currently working towards her bronze cross. With this level of accomplishment, she hopes to serve as a camp counselor near Minden this summer. — Jim Thomas Back in February, Julie enjoyed a one-week holiday in Acapulco. She liked it there so well, she hopes to return. A dream vacation, she says, would be Australia.
