

Claremont United Church

Anniversary celebrations

CLAREMONT — This year, the congregation of Claremont United Church is celebrating its 100th anniversary.

Many events are planned including a centennial service, Oct. 15.

The following anniversary activities have been arranged for April.

On Mon., April 10, Rev. Louise Barrie will show slides taken during her trip to the Holy Land. The gathering, with neighboring churches invited, will be held in the Sunday School room at 7:30 p.m. Marina Rodgers is in charge of the program with special music by Rosemary Timms.

The United Church Women will auction their hand-made Centennial Quilt in September. It contains 432 signatures.

On Wed., April 12, a Secret Pal Celebration will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. A pot-luck supper will be enjoyed followed by a time to meet a secret friend.

On Sunday, April 16, the Board of Stewards are holding their annual hot-beef dinner with servings at 4 p.m., 5:30 p.m., and 6 p.m. Tickets are available from Mary Borland, (649-1031). The cost is adults, $9; children, $4.

On Wed., April 26, a dessert anniversary card party is planned at 7:30 p.m., in the Sunday School room. Each lady is asked to bring "The Man of Her Life". The cost is $3 per person. For tickets, call Rosemary Timms at 649-2431.

Stouffville Missionary Church

A cup of coffee and fellowship

The Stouffville Missionary Church is hosting a Coffee Hour, Thurs., April 13 at 7:30 p.m.

Guests will include Susan Skorayko, an interior decorator from "Designer's Touch" of Unionville. Susan will provide ideas on how to implement room accents.

Myrabel Weaver of Toronto will share "The Changing Seasons of Life".

Special music will be provided by Esther Mangione.

All ladies of the community are invited.

Pretty wedding

Goodwood United Church

Mr. and Mrs. David Norman Williamson sign the register following their wedding in Goodwood United Church. The bride is the former Christine Lynne Bowman, daughter of Michael and Barbara Bowman of Scarborough. The groom is the son of Bill and Elisabeth Williamson of Goodwood. Rev. Nancy Waterman conducted the service. The happy couple are now residing at Cedarvale Boulevard, Musselman's Lake. —Jim Thomas
