

S/U Suspend sentence

CLAREMONT — A teacher on the staff of Claremont Public School, found guilty on three counts of sexual assault, has been prohibited from teaching for a period of three years.

The accused, David Field, of Uxbridge, touched the bare buttocks of three female students according to evidence presented in Whitby District Court during a four-day trial.

Judge Woods suspended Field's sentence and placed him on probation for three years.

Field is also prohibited from being alone in the company of anyone under the age of 15. He must submit to any counselling or psychiatric treatment deemed necessary by any doctors who examine him.

The accused plans an appeal. Judge Woods described the touchings as fleeting and transient, at the low end of the sexual assault scale. There was no evidence, he said, that the children had suffered any long-lasting effects (from the touchings).

Prosecutor Greg O'Driscoll argued Field's actions represented "a breach of trust of the most serious nature". He called for custodial sentence of some length.

Judge Woods said he was impressed with the support accorded the accused by relatives, friends and fellow teachers.

Editor charged

A charge of disobeying a red light has been laid against Tribune editor Jim Thomas, Rupert Avenue, Stouffville, following a two-car collision April 10.

The accident occurred at the intersection of McCowan Road and Bullock Drive, Markham.

Injured in the crash was Wm. Khouri of Toronto. Khouri was northbound on McCowan. Thomas was travelling east.

Friendship

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Friendship Club will meet Thurs., April 20 at 8 p.m., in the Legion Hall, Ninth Line North.

All seniors are welcome.

Anyone requiring transportation is asked to call 640-2443.

On top of his job

This fall, nine Stouffville young people will visit the U.S. Space Academy in Huntsville, Alabama. The trip will cost an estimated $10,000. To cover a portion of this expense, the teens have organized several projects including a car wash last Saturday. They raised $314. Shown on top of his job is Scott Ferris of Bloomington. — Jim Thomas

Fine program

Dear Editor:

I'm a grandmother of a York Region 4-H member.

This program has proved extremely beneficial for my granddaughter. She enjoys the projects and has made many new friends.

My granddaughter is not a country girl. By that, I mean she doesn't live on a farm. But this fact hasn't deterred her enthusiasm. The instruction, I feel,

My real reason for writing is to commend your newspaper on the coverage provided 4-H programs, both in York and Durham Regions. Hardly a week goes by that there's not a story or a photo concerning 4-H in one area or the other. Speaking for one proud grandmother, the support is much appreciated.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Gladys Bates, Gormley
