

Wrong induction date

The late Dean Hughes of R.R. 1, Unionville, will be inducted posthumously into the Agricultural Museum Hall of Fame at Milton, June 4, not June 24 as reported last week. The Tribune regrets the error.

A bus will leave Markham Fairgrounds at 12 o'clock noon. The deadline for seat reservations is April 24.

'Girl Next Door' Career Day helped Nancy

By JIM THOMAS

Many students attending Stouffville Dist. Secondary School found a recent Career Day activity interesting, even helpful.

One of these was seventeen-year-old Nancy Burgess of Grade 12. Following graduation, Nancy hopes to enroll in a Travel and Tourism Course at Seneca College. This being the case, it was almost automatic that she sit in on a presentation by Ged Stonehouse of Stonehouse Travel, Stouffville.

"I found it extremely interesting," she said.

Nancy's tour 'Girl Next Door' prior to taking up residence on Millard Street, Stouffville, Nancy lived in Etobicoke, Calgary, and Markham.

She enjoys it here, both the town and her school.

"It's easier to get to know people at S.D.S.S.," she claims. She also appreciates the smallness of Stouffville, as compared to Markham.

"An indoor pool at the Rec. Centre would be nice," she claims, "but I don't really want the town to change."

Nancy says she made the switch from Markham High to Stouffville without much difficulty.

"At first, I didn't want to leave (Markham)," she recalls, "but now I think it's great."

A sister, Patricia, 13, attends at Orchard Park English, she says, is her best subject. This is, partly due to teacher Nevil Hodgson who she describes as "very nice."

Boyfriend Aaron McWilliams would probably fit a similar descriptive. Aaron played with the 'Uxbridge' Bruins. Nancy attended most home games.

Nancy hopes to work in her mother's office at Kennedy Road and Denison Avenue this summer. Previously, she was employed at Canadian Tire and Sweetables in Stouffville.

Seventeen-year-old Nancy Burgess, Millard Street, Stouffville, hopes to enroll in a Travel and Tourism Course at Seneca College following graduation from S.D.S.S. In this regard, Nancy found Career Day, April 5, very helpful in planning her future.
