

In overtime

George Ross team takes battle of titans

By BRUCE STAPLEY
It was the battle of the titans Sunday night at the Recreation Centre, as Bunny's Flowers and George Ross Photo met for one last classic encounter.

And when it was all done, Nicole Bardell's overtime marker gave George Ross the game, 3-2 and the Atom Girls House League Hockey Championship.

With the score tied 2-2 at the end of regulation time, both team's went on the offensive in the extra period.

Spectators literally screamed and shrieked as rush after rush resulted in near misses and hit goal posts.

But Bardell made sure, as she had so often throughout the season, guiding her shot into the Bunny's net to provide yet another dramatic finish to a Bunny's-George Ross match up.

The other George Ross Goals were scored by Stephanie Summerhill and Jenni Turner.

Bunny's goals were counted by Patricia Davies and Laura Winterstein.

In the consolation contest, it was Melissa Dawson providing the firepower as MPH Earthmoving bested Stouffville Bowling Centre 3-1.

Dawson scored twice, with Shyla Brennan providing a single, as MPH completed a late season resurgence to give them the also ran award.

Nicole Thornhill registered the Bowling Centre tally.

Curling winds down

The rink skipped by Randy Grant wound up atop the heap this season in Uxbridge Curling Club play. Grant's rink, which included Ed O'Beirn (vice), Jim Hobbs (second) and Don Chase (lead), was named Men's champions for the 1988-89 season.

Barry Acton's rink took the Mixed team honors. Donna Acton was vice, John Larmer second and Kelly Grant lead.

The Ladies championship rink was skipped by Helen Herrema and included Alice Curtice (vice), Debbie MacGregor (second) and Shirley Lenarduzzi (lead).

Presentations were made at the club's annual season-ending banquet Saturday night. The season ended Friday.
