

Stompin' good time had by all

By KATE GILDERDALE
The heat was on Friday afternoon at Stouffville District Secondary School as students and teachers battled it out for the intramural square dance championships.

Square dancing has been featured in the school physical education program for more than 20 years, teacher Dave Connell told The Tribune. "This competition is the culmination of two and a half weeks of square dancing lessons; and in the last two days we've had Bruce and Bunny Burton in and they've been teaching line dances, waltzes and chachas."

Students have also learned circle dances and polkas, he added. Other teachers involved in the program are Sue Leroy, Cathie Croucher, Scott Croucher and Jim Fletcher. The gym was packed with dancers in the junior category, and they all entered into the spirit of the event with gusto, whooping and whistling as they danced.

Most had adhered to the appropriate dress code: jeans, checked shirts, coveralls and straw hats.

Winners in the junior group were Nicole Ellis, Tammy Wray, Vince Wilson, Melanie Chong, Marcus Milos, Brian Snooks, Lisa Tucker and Tim Lovell.

The winning seniors were Jenny Pritzker, Stephanie Schader, Susan Carter, Brenda Hachey, Maureen Slater, Michelle Barker, Heather Wideman, Trisha Emmons and Fluffy the Rabbit. Each winner will receive a T-shirt proclaiming them as "Intramural Champs."

Maternal mathematics

Claremont Public School's student Centre (Claremont) goes over the work sheets prepared and with her mother, Louise, even open house had last week. Parents were invited to the school as part of Ontario Education Week. Schools throughout the Claremont area took advantage of Education Week to display their own activities during the school year and to organize a host of activities.

Avoid Higher Insurance Premiums

Paying the traffic ticket's fine seemed like the easiest way. It was only $53. I didn't realize my insurance premium would go up so much...

Can you afford not to come to THE TRAFFIC TICKET EXPERTS?

When you come to THE TRAFFIC TICKET EXPERTS the first consultation is FREE. We will discuss your case with you and advise you of your options. We can then have one of our agents appear with you in court to conduct your defence.

On the other hand, you could just pay for the ticket. But before you do, consider:

- you could lose your licence for two or more convictions under the Highway Traffic Act. Every ticket is equally important. Not just the last one - the one that will actually cost you your licence.
- you could face a substantial increase in your insurance rates which will stay with you for the next three years. The increase for the first year alone, could have paid for our service.

THE TRAFFIC TICKET EXPERTS is staffed by ex-police officers, each with at least ten years of traffic related experience. Drop in and discuss your alternatives to paying your traffic ticket with us, Monday to Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., or call for an appointment. If necessary, we can come to your office or home. Evenings and weekend appointments are also available.

Before you pay - talk to us.
