Deficit-cutting provincial budget continues programs

The Hon. Robert Nixon, treasurer of Ontario, announced the 1989 budget recently in the legislature. This budget pledged the funds required to maintain Ontario's valued social programs and high standard of living within a framework of fiscal responsibility.

Ensuring tomorrow's growth requires building on today's economic strengths. In 1988, Ontario's economic performance outpaced all major industrialized countries except Japan. A healthy growth rate of 2.8 per cent is forecast for this year.

This government will introduce a series of initiatives to secure and support Ontario's competitive position in the global marketplace. It will provide $132 million through the Technology Fund to promote new industries. Small and medium-sized companies can draw support from the Growth Ventures program which will provide $100 million in loan guarantees over five years to companies investing in eligible businesses.

To guarantee the skills required to meet the challenges of the future, a $10-million retraining and redeployment fund that addresses labor market needs, as well as a $55-million adult literacy fund, will benefit Ontario's workers.

In the area of transportation, the government is committing an additional $2 billion to the new Transportation Capital Program. This program will support highway expansion and improvement projects, major municipal roads and transit projects, and additional GO Transit service will be provided to Milton, Georgetown, Richmond Hill and Stouffville, with an extension to Oshawa.

In the area of social assistance reform, the budget is committing $415 million to help individuals move from a life of dependency to a life of self-sufficiency.

First-time home buyers participating in the Ontario Home Ownership Savings Plan will be able to obtain a full refund of the land transfer tax on homes priced up to $150,000 and a partial tax refund on home purchases up to $200,000.

The Ministry of Housing will receive a 28-per-cent budget increase to assist its efforts to provide affordable housing.

In conclusion, Mr. Nixon's fifth budget includes substantial improvements to Ontario's fiscal position. It has cut the deficit to its lowest level in 15 years, trimming last year's figure by $911 million.

Locals extend sympathy

By MARJORIE WOODLAND

The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late Harry Brown who, suffering from some health problems, died suddenly Friday, May 19. He is survived by his wife, Jean Elson and a family of eight, Ronald, Barbara, Gary, Neil, Danny, Tommy, Candy and Martin. The funeral service was held at the Low & Low Funeral Chapel, Uxbridge, with interment in the Goodwood Cemetery. A lifelong resident, he farmed on Third Line for many years.

Several Women's Institute members attended the district annual meeting held in Sunderland. This once-popular rural organization of women is showing a slightly declining membership which is regrettable, considering the community work performed by the members, an asset to any area. Meetings are held in the Goodwood Community Centre on the first Monday of each month unless otherwise advertised. The June meeting will include a tour of the headquarters of Larkin Real Estate in the newly-renovated building on the northwest corner of the village, then returning to the hall for the remainder of the program and fellowship time. Visitors and new members will always be warmly welcomed.

Goodwood United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, May 6, when Penny Ann Ross, lately of Goodwood, and Edward Lee Johnson, son of Robert and Anne Johnson, were united in marriage.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ross now living in Athelston, Que., were "home" to Goodwood for the celebration. The reception and supper were held in the Community Centre and the happy couple are settled in their new home in Uxbridge.

The corner of Fourth Line and Hwy. 47 is fast changing its appearance as the Cobra Stove Co. is busy erecting a large building on the property on the northwest corner. The northeast corner is the scene of much activity also as the Jehovah, Witness group prepares to erect a new Kingdom Hall.
