CAR RALLY SHOWS OFF OLD AND NEW

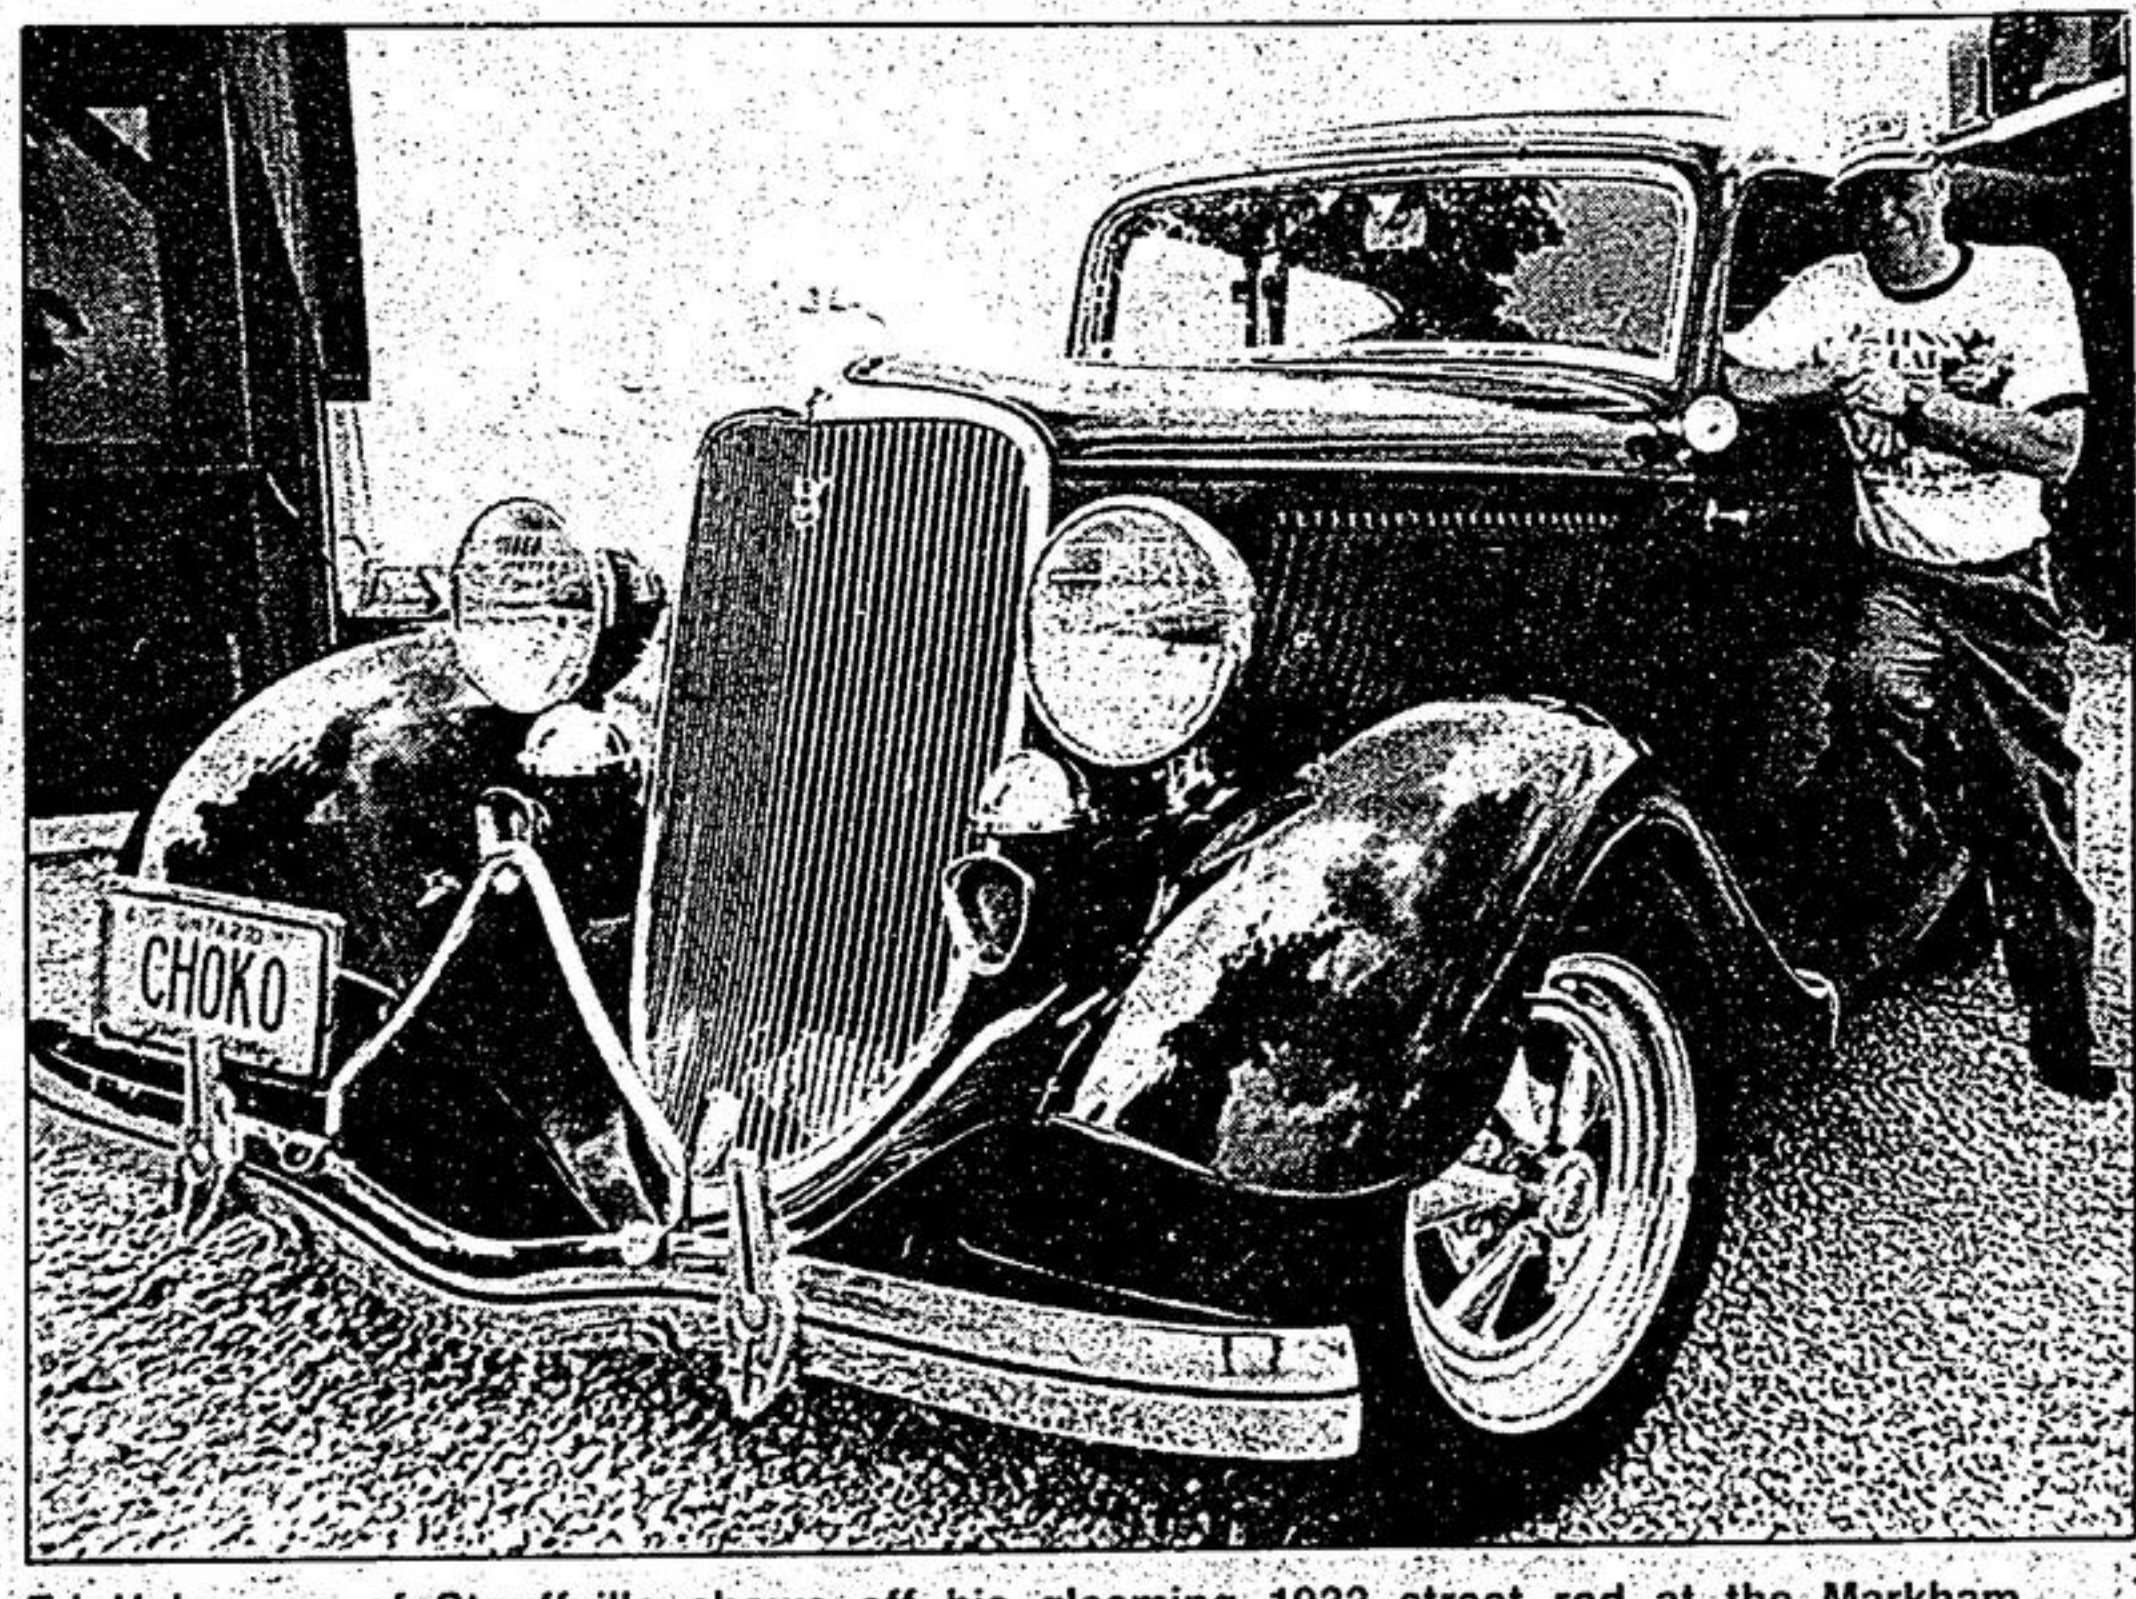

And raises money for the Multiple Sclerosis society

Saturday's third annual Multiple Sclerosis York East Trivia Car rally raised about $23,000 for MS and attracted several stylish, vintage automobiles like this one.

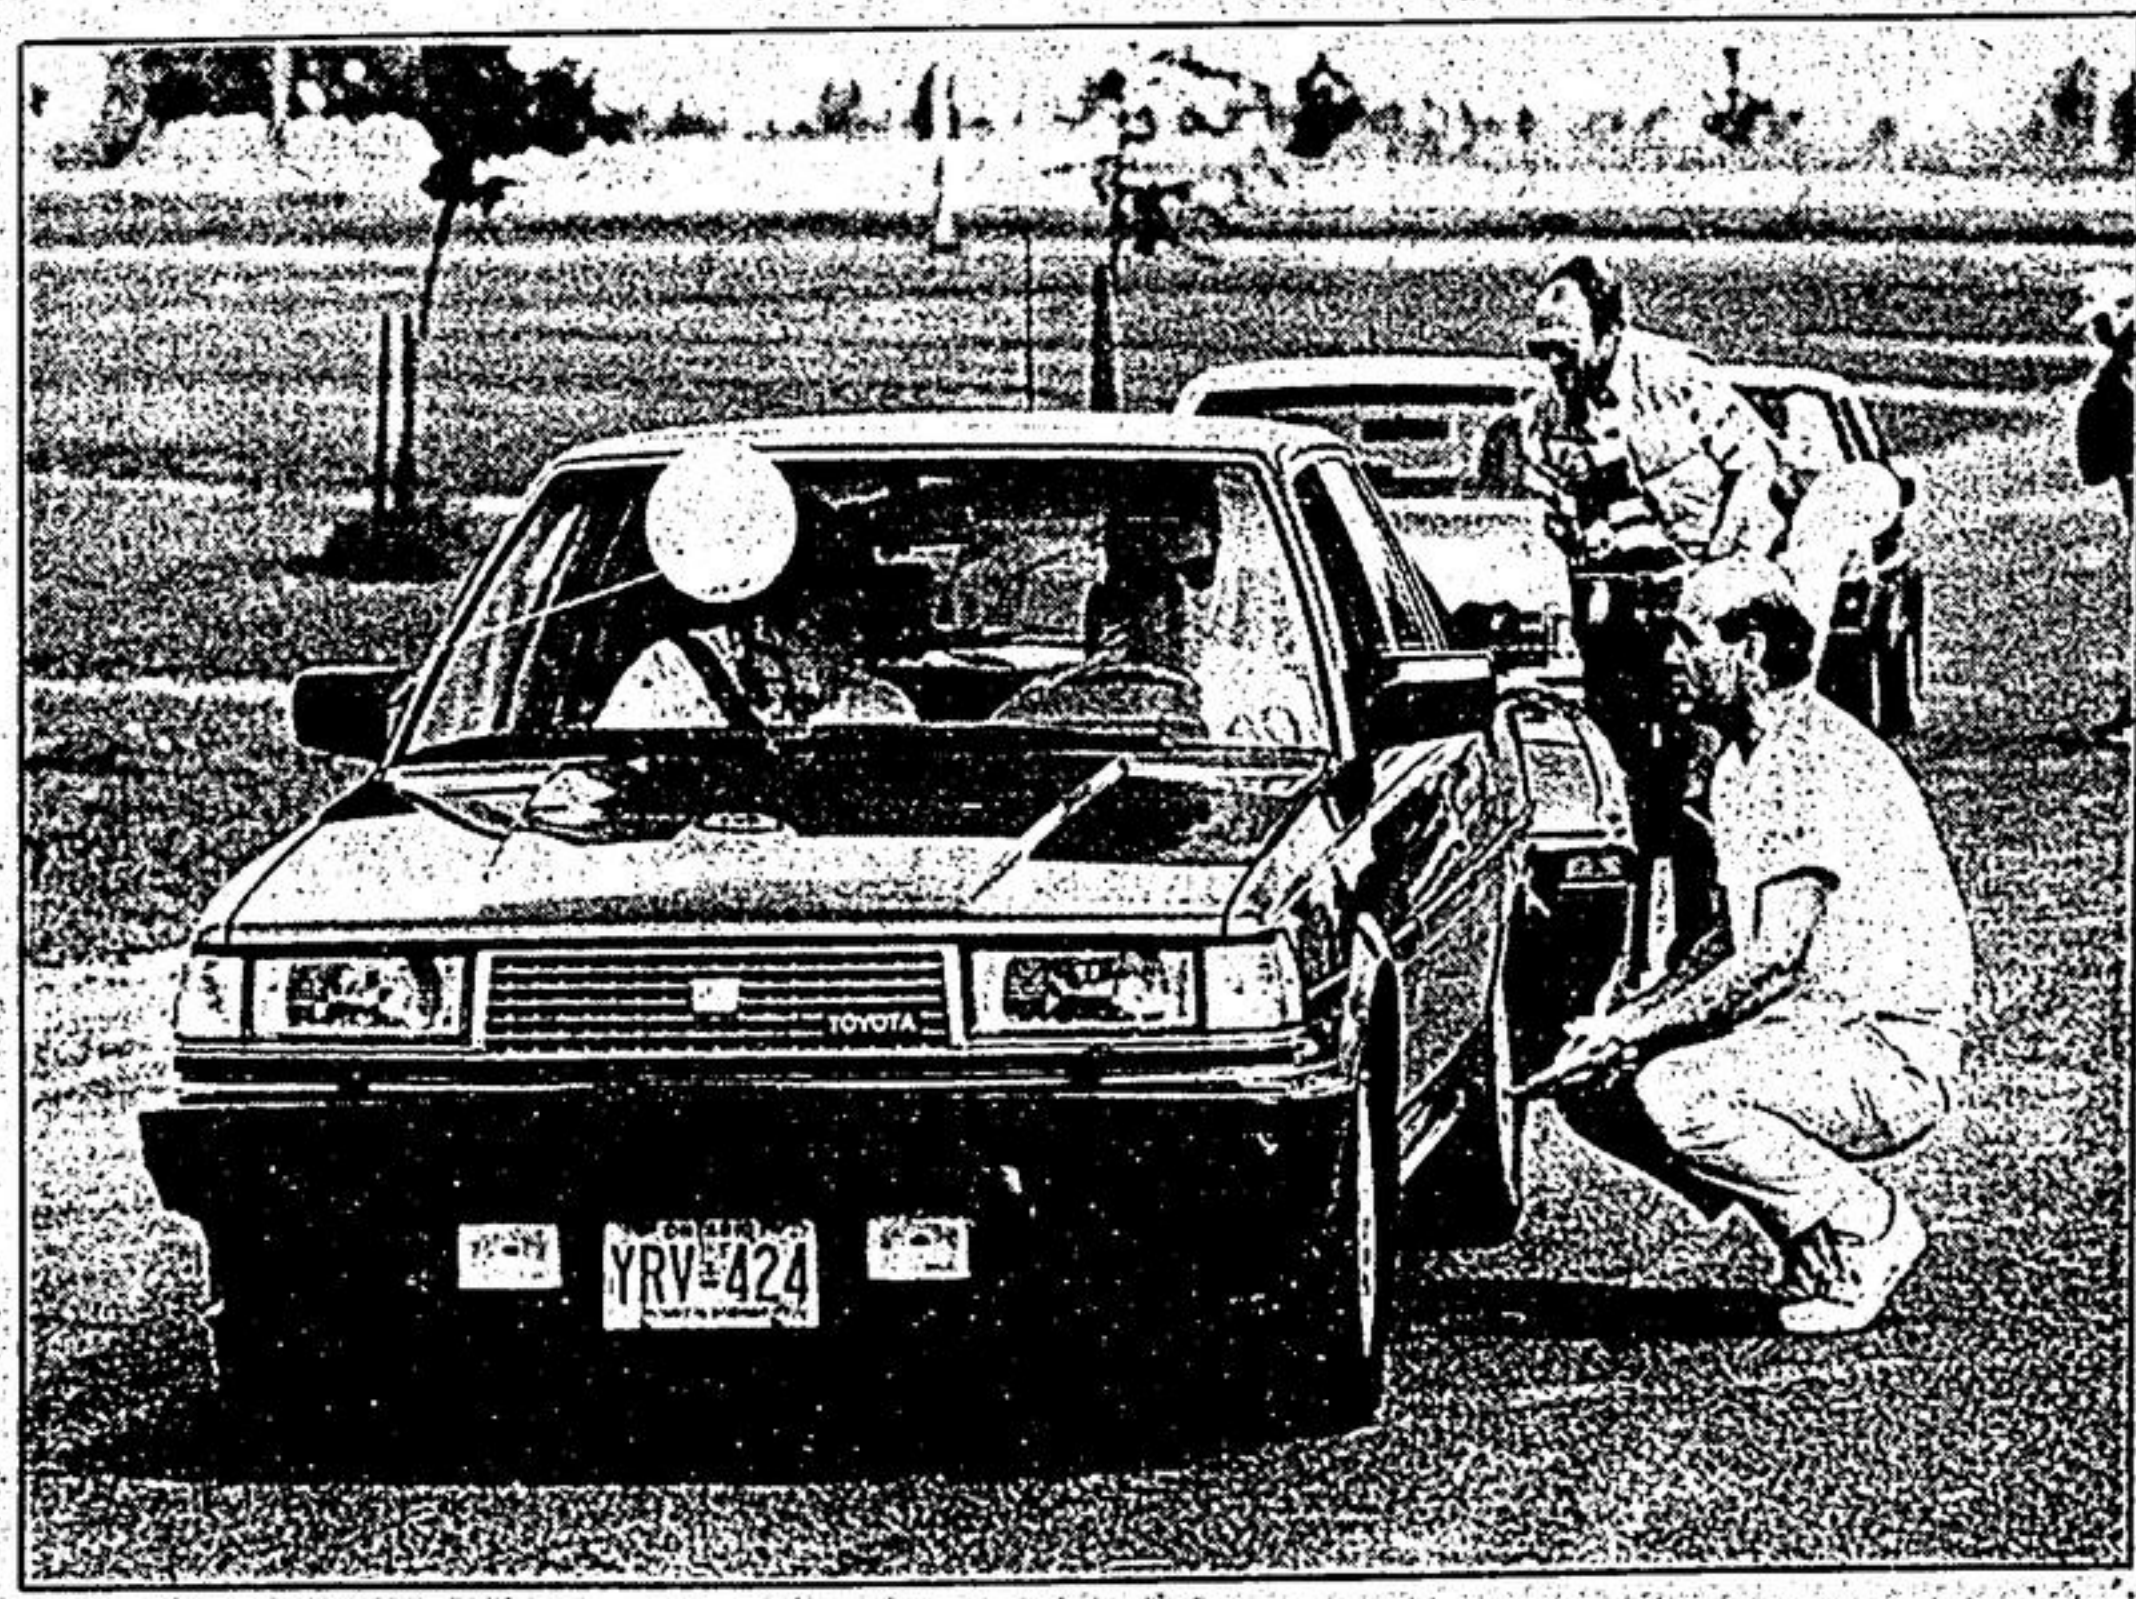

The sign says it all. For results of the third annual Ms car rally, see Friday's Weekender.

Ed Hakonson of Stouffville shows off his gleaming 1933 street rod at the Markham Fairgrounds, where the mystery rally started and finished.

Susan Moore (left) explains the registration procedure to Andy Asa and Jeannine Gawa while Debbie Wright (back) signs in another car driver.

Peter Williamson gives last-minute instructions to drivers at the beginning of the rally. First prize for the rally was a trip for two to Las Vegas.
