

'Oldest inhabitant' called upon for weather reports

Here again are some items of interest called up from issues of The Tribune of years gone by.

100 years ago

June 21, 1889: THE WEATHER

It rains every day or so, doesn't it? Let us see! The oldest inhabitant says that although he was not present at the time of Noah's little excursion (by the way, it rained that time too,) one of his ancestors was, and since that time he has not known such a continued, long-drawn, persistent, regular and constant season of damp, wet, moist, disagreeable weather, except in eighteen-hundred and ever-so-few, when it rained every day for six weeks. The OI probably is thinking of Glasgow where it rains every day except when it snows.

June 29, 1939: Surrounded with beautifully decked tables, lovely flowers and good things to eat, Mrs. Henry Hodgson made the first cut in the handsome birthday cake at the 50th anniversary occasion of the Stouffville United Church Women's Missionary Society.

Over 150 delegates from Uxbridge, Sandford, Zephyr, Unionville, Markham, Richmond Hill, Newmarket, etc. sat down to the banquet, representing almost every sister society in the Toronto East Presbyterial.

It was fitting that this honor should come to Mrs. Hodgson because she is remarkably active for her 88 years, and stands as one of the three living charter members. The others are Mrs. Lyman Dougherty and Mrs. McNair, both of Toronto. Mrs. Dougherty was also present for this anniversary event held in the local church last Thursday afternoon.

June 18, 1964: Complaints concerning the operation of the recently opened Sunny Valley Dance Hall at Musselman's Lake prompted officers of the Whitchurch Twp. police department to move in on the premises late Friday night.

The raid was concentrated on a group of youths, both boys and girls, gathered outside the building. The police action caught the visitors by surprise and they scattered in all directions. Many threw beer bottles away as they ran.

Police Chief Fred Mason of the Whitchurch force said that although none of the dance patrons was directly involved, it is apparent that the dance premises is attracting a poor class of clientele. He said he will recommend to council that the hall operator should not be granted a licence.

Serving up smiles

Residents at Stouffville's Parkview Home were treated to an outside barbecue as part of the activities planned during seniors' week last Thursday. Here, Parkview employee Steve Ribble (left) serves a hot dog to fellow employee Sandy Rover as Frank Burkholder lines up for his dinner.
