Bantams edge out Oshawa

Spurred on by the six hit; eight strikeout performance of pitcher Jodi Infurnari, the Stouffville Bantam softball team snuck past the Oshawa Shamrocks 5-4 on Thursday in a road game. Bill Pride carried the big stick offensively for Stouffville, with two bunt singles, a pair of runs batted in, and a stolen

Kevin Nichols went three for three at the plate.

Newcomer Jason Underwood contributed two doubles, to help the Bantams to their third win of the season.

The Bants lost to Scarborough Fairway 6-1 Wednesday, a marked improvement from the 17-1 thrashing they had been given the last time the two teams met.

Squirts chalk up

The Stouffville Choko Design Squirts softball team used strong pitching performances to chalk up two victories in league play last week.

Paul Koert recorded 13 strikeouts in a 5-4 win over East Gwillimbury at home Thurs-day, with Mike Underwood coming on to get the last two outs of the game. On Sunday, the Squirts won a makeup game against Bramalea 14-4, with Graham Crowder and Underwood sharing the pitching assignment.

Scott Assinck provided the main offensive thrust Thrusday with his three run triple in the second inning. Ian Ellis reached base three times, with Evan Boyd and Adam Crowder getting aboard twice each. Tommy Hammond and Tim Smart carried the big sticks on Sunday's road game, driving home three runs a piece.

Boyd, Adam Crowder, and Ellis scored three times each. Walks played a big part in the Choko offence, with Boyd get-ting four free passes, and Adam Crowder taking three base on
