

Strawberry Festival is a smash hit

A huge crowd of sun-seekers turned out over the weekend to share in the fun offered at the annual Strawberry Festival, Canada's Birthday, the official opening of Main St. and a recognition of Stouffville's heritage all combined to make for a special celebration in the top right photo. Whitchurch-Stouffville Mayor Fran Sembray, flanked by local dignitaries, cuts the ribbon to officially mark the opening of the new streetscape in downtown Stouffville. Middle right: Cast members from Music Mania offer vocal support at the clock tower. Below right: Marion Gray shares a bone with Juddy, an American Cocker Spaniel. In the town park, the bike decorating contest looks its best on young Michael Lawrence, 15, who entered the class and design (bottom centre photo). The live entertainment portion of the festival was capped Sunday night by Honkie The Hawk/Hawkins at Deer Park Inn (middle, centre photo). Crowds turned out (bottom left) for a piece of Canada Day cake (top, centre) baked for the celebration while the remote control car races (middle, left) attracted a large crowd. And the Festival was paid a visit by Miss Whitchurch-Stouffville Pageant winner Nicole Knight (middle left photo). With Nicole are runners-up Carrie Swain, 16 (left) and Christy Robertson, 16 (right). Greens chef Dan Cranswick concentrates on keeping the food in these glasses during the Main St. waiters' race. He didn't win, but his form speaks volumes! By all accounts, the festival was a rousing success and, with a little help from the weather man, a fun weekend was had by everyone involved.
