WET AND WILD

CARRIERS CARRY ON

Local kids make a splash at the
Economist/Tribune
 Carrier Appreciation Day

Top: Nine-year-olds Brandon Bartlett (left) and Trevor Chalmers play Tarzan on the Pleasure Valley rope slide Monday. Newspaper carriers from the Stouffville Tribune and Markham Economist & Sun gathered for a wet, wild time at the park. Left: Carriers await their turn on the water slide. At right: 11-year-old Economist & Sun carrier, Caryn Mohammed enjoys being dumped into the pool at the end of the waterslide. Below: Carriers take aim at an apprehensive district representative Eric Squires atop the dunking tank. Since the carriers were unable to dunk Squires, district representative Stewart Ritchie (below) takes matters into his own hands.
