Stouffville Squirts thrash Scarborough

The Choko Design Squirts softball team responded to a week off by pounding Scarborough 17-5 at the Town Park Thursday.

Led by the home run power of John McKinnon and Graham Crowder, the Squirts ran roughshod over opposition pitching, going through the entire batting order before making an out in the fifth inning.

McKinnon had three singles, scored four times, and had a trio of runs batted in to go with his round tripper, while Crowder combined a single, three RBIs, and two runs with his four bagger.

Ian Ellis and Mike Underwood each banged out three safeties, with Scott Assinck chipping in with a pair.

Underwood stuck out five in his four innings pitched for Choko.

Tommy Hammond worked the last three frames.

The heavy hitting Choko squad takes on Aurora this Thursday, and is looking to avenge a loss two weeks ago.

Game time is 6:30 at Diamond Two.
