

Gormley news

Visitors from Indiana

EVELYN MILSTED and Mrs. Lawrence Boynton, for many years Gormley residents, have moved to Newmarket. The College and Career Group from Heise Hill Church conducted the Sunday morning service at Karney United Church near Burk's Falls.

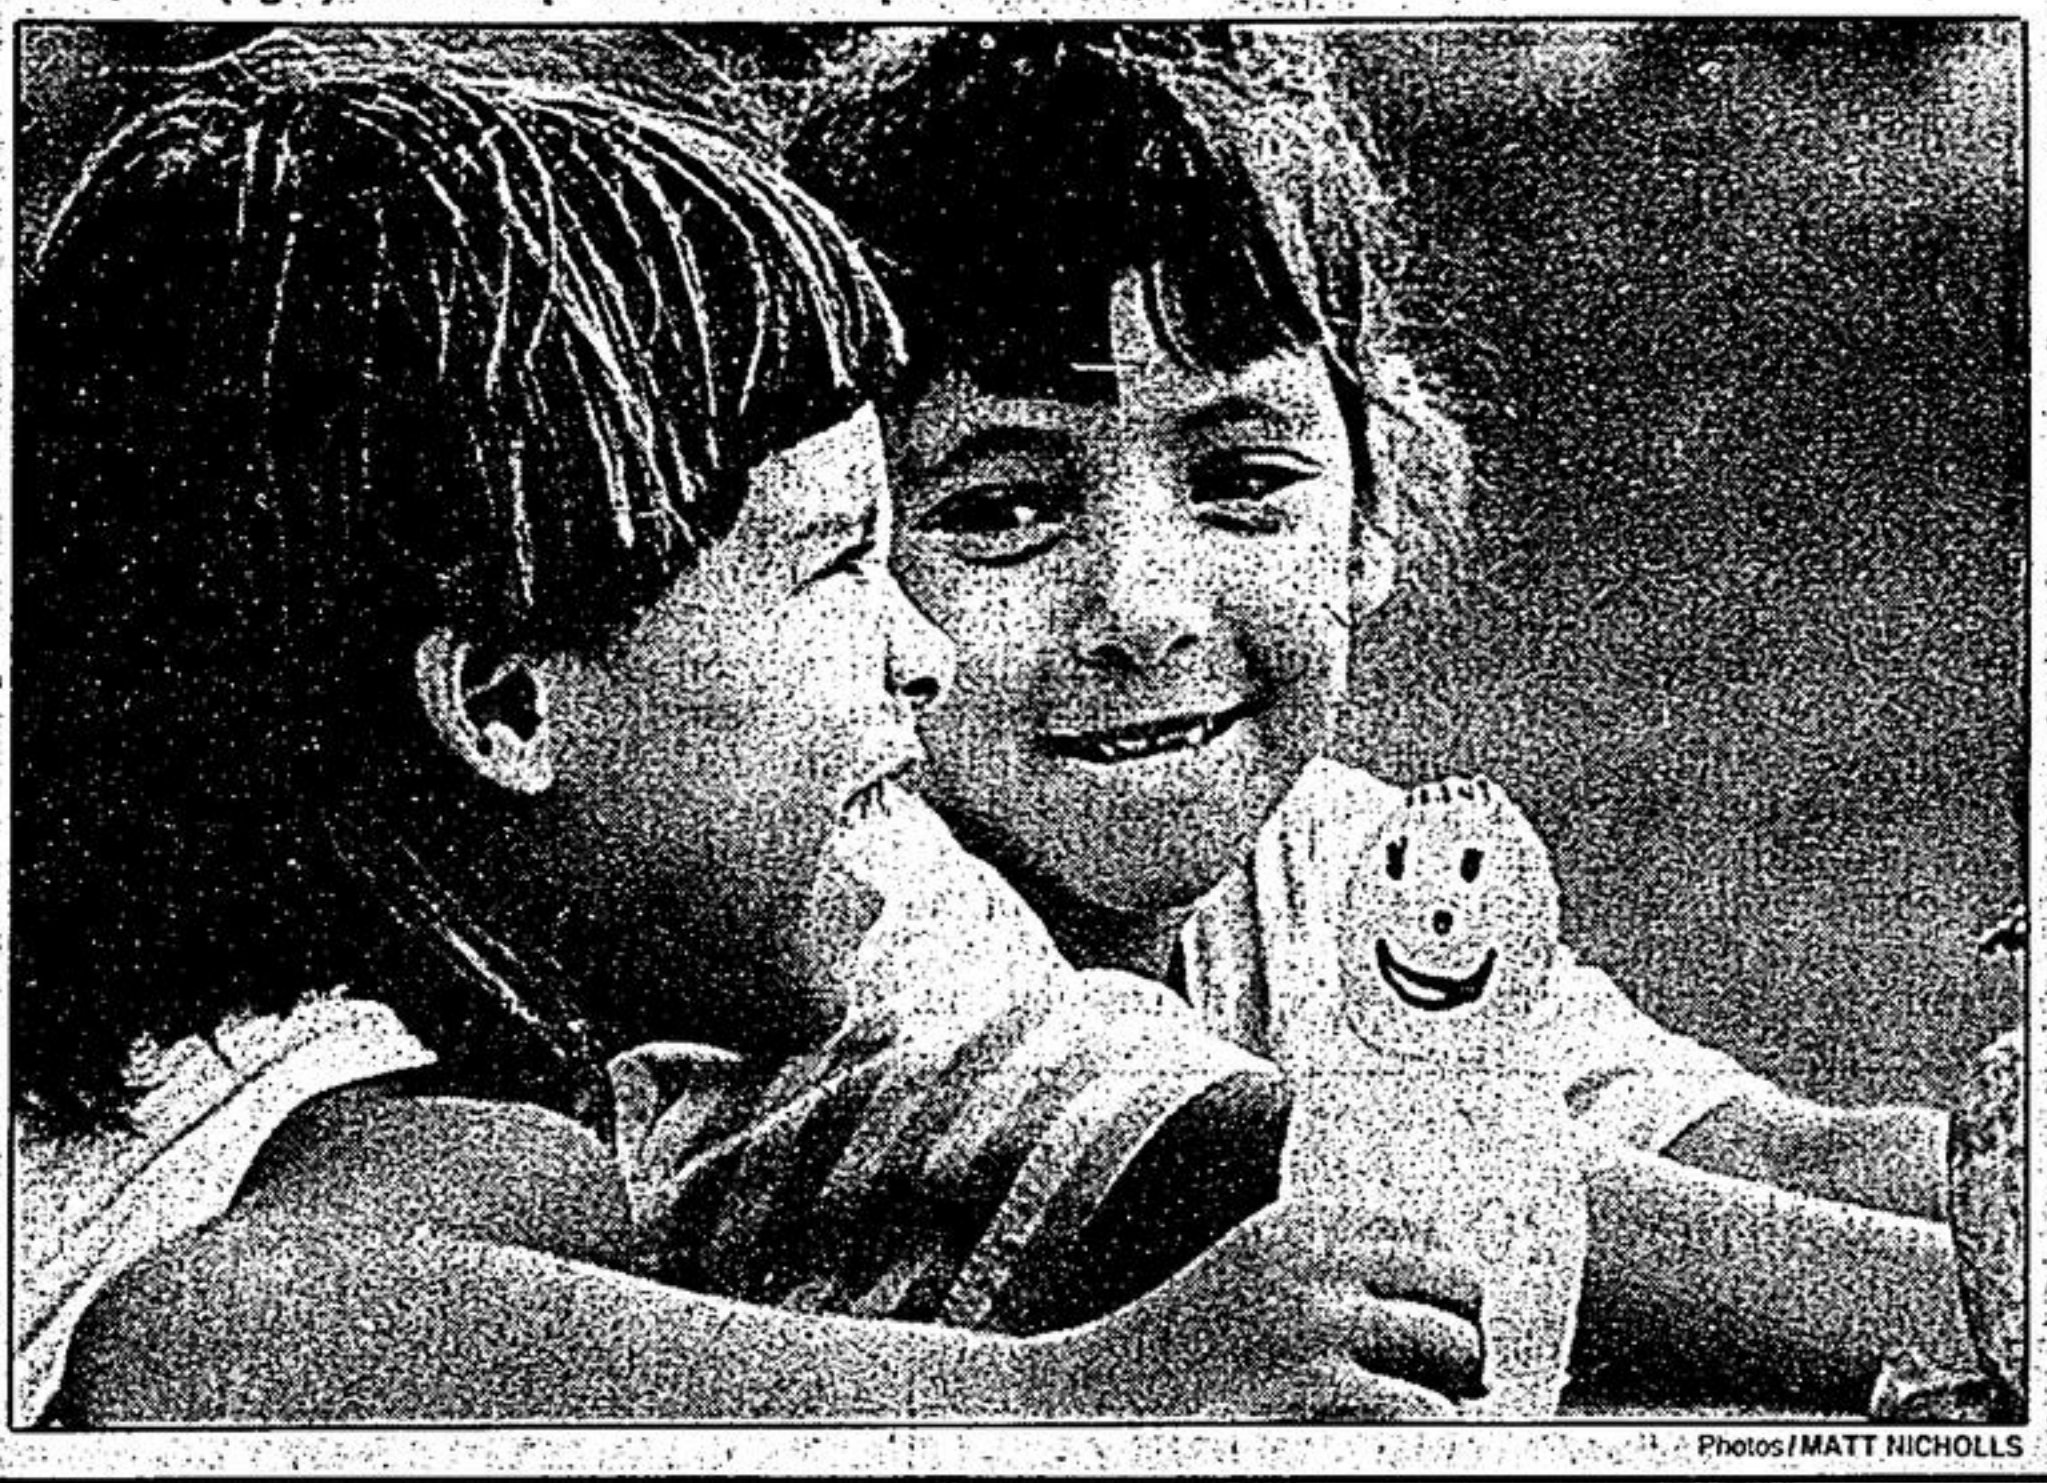

Carri Ann of Avilla, Indiana, spent the weekend with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Marlin Ressler. Carri Ann is spending several weeks with her grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Gary Winger and family of Povingnituk, Que., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Winger. They showed pictures of their work in Quebec, at the Parkview Village Auditorium on Sunday night. A number of Gormley people are attending the Missionary Church Family Camp at Staynard. Sunday evening services will be cancelled at the Missionary Church for the next two Sundays.

Day camp duties

New Lung Association office opens

A York Region office of The Lung Association is being opened to serve the needs of the area. The Metropolitan Toronto and York Region branch will open its new quarters Aug. 15 in Richmond Hill at 9005 Leslie St., Unit 10. Until now, information and programs have come from the main office in downtown Toronto. According to statistics from The Lung Association, one in every five Canadians suffers from a breathing problem. More than 26,000 die each year from respiratory diseases such as emphysema, asthma, lung cancer and others. School, asthma, better breathing, smoking cessation and medical research are some of the programs and activities conducted by The Lung Association.

Family's picnic held

The Gilchrist picnic was held Sunday, July 9, at the home of Rick and Alda Marshall in Kitchener. There were 40 who attended and enjoyed the weekend. The Gilchrist family lived on Ninth Line of Whitechurch and attended the old Vivian School.
