Cullen Barns

Cullen Theatre's 1989 season continues, this time with an exciting romantic comedy-drama that is sure to delight all. Two for the Seesaw, a play written by William Gibson and directed by Marni Walsh, runs until Aug. 12.

The play is a romantic story featuring a tumultuous young lawyer and a not-so-successful dancer turned seamstress, who search to find perfect love and security in each other's arms.

For show times and further information call the Cullen Theatre box office at 477-4475 ext. 271.

Champagne Dinner Theatre

Same Time Next Year is now playing at the Champagne Dinner Theatre. It's a funny and romantic story about Doris and George who meet in a country inn in 1951 and carry on an adulterous love affair by agreeing to meet in a guest cottage at the inn every year at the same time for 25 years. Dinner is at 7 p.m. and show begins at 9 p.m. Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays until Sept. 30. Tickets are $29.95 Thursdays, and $32.95 Fridays and Saturdays.

Footloose

Born Yesterday appears Wednesdays at Footloose Roadhouse. Footloose is now open Sundays.

Wilson House

David Cox continues to perform on the piano every Friday and Saturday evening during dinner in the Regency Dining Room at Wilson House.

Trivia treasure

Lucky winners (back row from left) Rob Hart, Jon Petrie and Ben Wallace jump for joy at winning $1,000 in the Deer Park Inn's Call My Bluff trivia game. The game was played over several weeks on Thursday nights. In the foreground holding the cheque are contest organizer Gloria Enright and Deer Park Inn owner Diane Proulx.
