Girls basketballers meet hot opponents

BRUCE STAPLEY
Correspondent

After winning their season opener, the Stouffville District Secondary School Senior girls basketball team has been fighting bad breaks and hot opponents.

The SDSS squad has lost three games in a row. And while a 51-27 rout at the hands of a strong King City team last Tuesday left them in disarray, the girls came close in two other matches.

Stouffville took their first game against Aurora 27-18 Sept. 20, with Stacey Black leading the way with 13 points. Karen Carr had seven, and Anne Beecher three.

On Sept. 22, Stouffville was edged by Williams 26-23. Anne Beecher was top scorer in a losing cause with eight points. Stacey Black had six, and Maureen Slater five, with Holly McNamara showing great hustle.

In the loss to King City, the Stouffville team fell apart in the second half after Karen Carr left the game with an injury.

Last Thursday, it was a case of running out of time as the girls lost 22-20 to Huron Heights.

While coach Sheila Coleman called the game "the best team effort we've had all season," the SDSS squad just wasn't able to overcome the stubborn Huron Heights team.

Anne Beecher had six points Thursday, with Kirsty Saunders chipping in with four.

Maureen Slater had three points.

Juniors lose

The bubble finally burst for the Stouffville District Secondary School Junior girls basketball team Thursday.

The Spartans, who went into the game at the SDSS gym with perfect 3-0 won-lost mark, were downed 32-19 by Huron Heights.

The day before, the Stouffville Junior cagers had staged a dramatic comeback, coming back from an 18-7 halftime deficit to beat King City 24-22.

Amy Beecham's basket with only 43 seconds remaining gave SDSS the win.

Julie Coleman was top scorer for Stouffville with nine points. Susie Baston had seven, and Tammy Wray five.

Nicole Ellis and Terrill Junkin provided solid defense, with Michelle Hofstee coming up with some big rebounds.

On Sept. 22, the Juniors thumped Williams 43-24. High scorers were Susie Baston, Terrill Junkin, and Julie Coleman with eight points each, while Michelle Hofstee and Tammy Wray had six. Terrill Junkin also grabbed seven rebounds.

Anthony Kassermell, 5, digs in and works on his skating while Micky Tyms, 7, sits in the chair and takes the easy route around the rink. The two Stouffville hockey players were taking part in a house league practice session Saturday morning at the Recreation Centre.

Pirie powers Black Hawks in SAHL

Phil Pirie scored a pair of goals to power the Black Hawks to a 3-1 win over the Devils in Stouffville Amateur Hockey League (SAHL) action recently.

Bill Harman notched the Hawks other goal, while Gord Ness had the Devils only marker.

In other SAHL action, John Baird and Bob McKinnon, each with two goals, led the Red Wings over Betz Pools 6-3. Ray Mountjoy and Don Lloyd also scored for the winners.

Betz goals went to Stan Kerswill, Dave Tucker and Wayne McMann.

The Kings and Bruins battled to a 3-3 deadlock.

Bill Ormson, with two, and George Sled scored for the Bruins, while Doug Gornall, Jim Teeter and Paul Baker replied for the Kings.

The Canucks and Penguins also skated to a tie, as Darcy Milligan for the Canucks and Bruce Wilcox for the Penguins traded goals.

Bruce Mehaffey, with two, Naz Nicastro, Peter Mabley, John Hickman, Tim Lewis and Walter McDonald led the Jets to a 7-3 win over the Capitals.
