 The entrepreneurial spirit is thriving in Stouffville with the arrival of four of its latest additions to the business community. In the top left photo, Anastasios (left) and Paul Koidis spruce things up at Zappeion, a new Main St. restaurant with a Greek flavor. Top right, a sign at the new Sunoco and Becker's store tries to lure customers. Above left is new business Frederick's for Men while above right, Anthony Wong takes a breather at Photoville.
