Arts York accepting applications

Whitchurch-Stouffville area students talented in dance, theatre or visual arts are invited to apply for acceptance at Unionville High School's Arts York program.

Applications for the program in various arts disciplines are being accepted until Dec. 12, 1990.

Admission to the Arts York program at the Grade 9 level is based on a successful audition and completion of Grade 8. The program includes "an appropriate" balance between academic subjects and specialized courses in the arts, according to a program brochure.

Transportation for accepted students is provided for those who live 3.2 km or more from the school at Warden Avenue and Hwy. 7. Depending on where the student lives in York Region, transit tickets or a bus will be provided.

Studies offered in the Arts York program include dance arts, dramatic arts, music, visual arts and theatre production.

Students considering the theatre arts program must have two years of secondary school completed prior to September, 1990.

Interested applicants can contact the Arts York program coordinator at Unionville High School, 201 Town Centre Blvd., Unionville, Ont., L3R 8G5. Call 479-2787 for further information.

Port Perry set for run of pirate musical

Port Perry's Scugog Choral Society is gearing up this week for a nine-show run of the musical Anne Bonney: A Pirate Adventure.

The musical, written by Nina Foxall and featuring music by Thomas Millar, contains a cast of more than 40 performers.

A preview performance of the production on Nov. 15 (tickets are $30) will benefit the Port Perry Community Memorial Hospital Fund.

Regular performances will run Nov. 16, 17, 18, 23, 24, 25, 30, and Dec. 1 and 2 in the Town Hall 1873, at the corner of Queen and Lilla Streets in Port Perry at 8 p.m.

Tickets for the show are available at Irwin Smith Music, 305 Queen Street. The Nov. 16 and 23 show tickets are $7. All other performances throughout the run are $10.
