

Community

Close-Up

Stouffville 'toons' in on Christmas

Crowds lined the Main Street Stouffville route for the Santa Claus parade Saturday, but before the arrival of the jolly elf, right, Shriners marched, bottom, Barney Rubble waved from a float, and spectators had a ball. The largest numbers gathered across from the camera platforms in the middle of town. The Girls' Hockey Association float urged watchers to 'toon in', one in an endless line of community floats.

