Grain traders

There will always be animals and there will always be feed mills like the one in Stouffville. Above, Toby the cat acts as official tester of the cat feed. At left, 15-year-old Danny Hie works part time at the feed mill. Here, he prepares a dolly load to be transferred to another part of the storage area. Below, Lloyd Hamm fills out an order form in the mill's small office. At right, the feed mill's loading bay awaits its next customer. The mill sells a variety of feeds for all kinds of livestock.
