

Spartan volleyballers top King City, but fall to Huron Heights

The Junior-Senior Stouffville District Secondary School (SDSS) girls volleyball tandem won the battle of the visitors, but fell short against the host teams in last Thursday's action at Huron Heights. Both the Junior and Senior Spartan squads were able to handle King City, the third member of the triple header. The Seniors needed three games to take their match, taking the deciding contest 15-6 after winning the opener by the same score, then losing 8-15 in the middle tussle.

The SDSS Junior crew knocked off King City two straight, 15-8, 15-7.

Against Huron Heights, however, it was a case of a good effort not being enough for the Spartans teams.

The Seniors bowed 9-15, 12-15, while the Juniors were edged 4-5, 11-15.

Lise Haylow shone for the Senior Spartans, whose 8-3 won lost mark has them in first place among York Region's AA teams, second when AAA outfits are included.

Sheila Coleman, coach of the Junior SDSS unit, felt her team showed good hustle in their matches.

"Carrie Swain was hitting the ball really hard, and Kelly Sheridan was all over the court digging up balls. It was just tough breaks that cost us the set with Huron Heights."

Both teams are idle until Feb. 6 due to school examinations.

Rugelis scores four as Rangers earn tie

Eights were wild last Tuesday in Stouffville Intermediate Hockey League play at the Recreation Centre.

Bruce Rugelis went on a four goal binge to enable his Consortium Group Rangers to forge an 8-8 tie with Boyd's Sports.

Mark Savery fired a pair for the Rangers, with Bill English and Al Rugelis rounding out the scoring.

Mike Feasby's hat trick paced Boyd's, while Barry Greenshields had two goals, and Claude Maillet, Scott Sutherland and Paul Westerman added singles.

In other action, Steve Middleton notched a hat trick as the A & S Red Wings fought the Williamson Kings to an 8-8 deadlock.

Tim Yeomans had a pair for the Wings, with singles going to Kevin McGuckin, Mike Glenn and Mark Barbara. Naz Nicastro, Doug Feasby, and Kevin Bartley each scored a pair of goals for the Kings, while Tom Lehman and Barry Smith had one each.

Rick Hay's four goals led the Kellington Capitals to an 11-1 win over the Dave Blow Whalers.

Zenon Byblow, with a hat trick, Ted Waite, with a pair, Scott Harper and Ted Petkovich rounded out the Caps scoring. Lee Brown had the Whalers lone marker.

In games from the week before, Naz Nicastro's hat trick helped power the Williamson Kings to a 7-3 win over the Consortium Group Rangers.

Kevin Bartley, Paul Barry, Doug Feasby and Olaf Rabi also scored for the Kings, while Peter Sinclair, with a pair, and Bruce Rugelis replied for the Rangers.

In other play, Dave Raymer's two goals led the Dave Blow Whalers to a 5-3 win over the A & S Red Wings. Jamie Dunbar, Lee Brown and Marty Ellis had the other Whalers goals. Kevin McGuckin, with two, and Mike Glenn scored for the Wings.

Atom Clippers low on luck

The Boyd's Sports Atom Clippers were blanked 2-0 by Cobourg Wednesday in the opening game of their round robin playoff series.

And their luck didn't get much better in a weekend tournament in Peterborough.

Goals by Matt Turner and Adam Crowder gave the Clippers a 2-2 tie with Cobourg in their first game of the competition. Kyle Norton, Tim Smart, and Scott Assinck drew assists.

Boyd's were handed their worst thrashing of the year in game two, as Gloucester beat them 10-3.

Smart had a pair of goals for the Clippers, with Norton notching the third. Turner, Andrew Hutchison, and Crowder had assists.

Stouffville then recorded its first win in seven games, as they edged Merritton 2-1, as Norton scored both Clipper goals, unassisted.

But it wasn't enough to qualify them for further play.

The Clippers resume their round robin playoff series with Cobourg and Port Perry this week.

Pride places second overall in Oshawa

Michael Pride of the Stouffville Figure Skating Club placed second overall in his division at the Oshawa Invitational Skating Meet recently.

Pride, 12, a Grade 7 student at St. Mark's School, placed first in Figures, and fifth in Freestyle to earn the Silver Medal in the Pre-juvenile Men's level.

This is the first year Pride has competed in that class.

He will be competing at the Upper York Inter-Club competition in February, based on his strong showing at last week's Stouffville figure Skating Club meet.

Bowling champs

Jerry Snow and Carolyn Dobson recently won the Stouffville Bowling Association's Zone Roll-offs. The victory earned them a ticket to the Ontario High-Low Doubles Championships. Snow and Dobson combined for a three-game total of 1,263, besting their average by a total of 165 to win the event. The competition was the culmination of six weeks of league play leading up to the finals.
