Family studied at Stouffville meeting

A light-hearted look at the structure and function of the 'family system' is being presented at Parkview Village auditorium next week as part of a series of breakfast meetings for women in York Region.

Led by speaker Pam Santon, the local series will look at "Families: What Works - What Doesn't."

Small group discussions and audience participation are included in the event.

It's all part of a series of meetings organized by The Humanitas Centre for Personal Growth and Development. Cost for the meeting is $20.

It takes place Saturday, Feb. 24 from 9 to 11:30 a.m. in the auditorium at Parkview Village, 70 9th Line South in Stouffville.

For information about this, or upcoming meetings, call 841-1474.

Museum celebrates heritage week

Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum is celebrating the town's heritage next week with other municipalities across the province.

Local residents are invited to drop in during Ontario Heritage Week to get a behind the scenes glimpse of the creation of a new exhibit, or to peruse the museum's photograph and local history collection.

And next Monday, visitors can watch museum crafters demonstrate such skills as rug hooking or quilting.

The museum is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday to Friday. It is located on the west side of Woodbine Avenue in Vandork, two kilometres north of Bloomington Sideroad.

For information, contact the museum at 727-8954.
