

ST Hachey skates to gold medal at Upper York

Brenda Hachey of the Stouffville Skating Club won a gold and silver medal at the Upper York Inter-Club championships in Newmarket on the weekend.

Hachey captured gold in the Solo Dance, and took a silver in the Open Interpretive. Her strong performance in Newmarket made her the only member of the Stouffville club to qualify for the prestigious Central Ontario Section Inter-Club Championships slated for March 2-4 in Shelburne.

It will be Hachey's second appearance at the event.

Other Stouffville skaters also did well in Newmarket. Michael Pride won a silver in Men's Juvenile Figure Freestyle and bronze in the Preliminary Elements.

In other Stouffville Skating Club news, a number of skaters recently passed their tests.

In Preliminary Dance, Shannon Curry and Kathy Kilitzoglou passed the Dutch Waltz, while Kristy Assink and Elaine Dickens were successful in Canasta and Chris Weatherill and Jessica Weatherill passed Swing.

In Senior Bronze Dance, Julie Selwyn and Kris White passed the 14 Step, Zoe Ladis earned the Foxtrot and Stephanie McLeod was successful in the Willow.

Rachel Armour and Shawn Hermiston passed their Preliminary Figures, while Julie Selwyn earned her First Figure.

Also, along with medal winners Selwyn, Michael Pride and Jennifer McLeod, a number of other Stouffville skaters also did well at last week's Uxbridge Invitational.

Rachel Armour was fifth in Introductory B Ladies flight; Karen Boyd was eighth in Pre-Preliminary A Ladies flight; Stephanie McLeod was sixth in Pre-Preliminary B Ladies flight; Kirstin Kelly was seventh in Pre-Preliminary B Ladies flight; Melissa Miller was fifth in Preliminary Ladies flight; Nicole Jeffrey was fifth in Pre-Juvenile A Ladies flight.
