Goodwood news

Couples Club Prizes and merriment were the order of the evening.

A large crowd attended the euchre last Wednesday night.

Winners were Edna Myers, Lena Sterling and Ruth Smalley.

Leading the men were Martin Gaul, Lina Ogden and Irene Redshaw.

Draws were Everett Hammond, Ed Skinner, Lillian Sweet, Annie Borman and Margaret Gaul. The next euchre is March 7 at 8 p.m.

On St. Patrick's Day, Goodwood seniors are having a big luncheon starting at 12:30 p.m. and prizes will be offered. Be sure to keep the date open! It's Tuesday, March 13. Come out and support the seniors in Goodwood.

Admission is $3. Family and friends paid last respects Feb. 2 to Stouffville resident Mary Burkholder, who died at Scarborough's Centenary hospital Jan. 29 after a short illness.

Mrs. Burkholder was 51. She is survived by her husband, Douglas, son Robert and his wife Donna, daughters Darlene, Rosemary and Joanne, sister Ruth and grandson Benjamin.

She is also survived by her father, Viotto Pennanen. Mrs. Burkholder was predeceased by her mother, Fern Pennanen.

Services were held at Stouffville Missionary Church and spring interment is planned at Stouffville Cemetery.

Community mourns loss of Agnes Barrett

EVELYN MILSTED
Correspondent

Sympathy is expressed to Mr. George Barrett and family in the death of a loving wife and mother, Agnes, after a valiant fight with cancer.

Agnes passed away Wednesday morning at their home in Gravenhurst. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Robert Millen, daughters Joan Grove of Dickson Hill, Darna Cooman of Markham, son Larry, of Toronto, six grandchildren and two great grandsons.

She rested at the Marshall Funeral Home in Richmond Hill. The funeral was held at the Missionary Church on Saturday afternoon where George and Agnes were members for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Steckley spent four weeks with a work team in Mali, Africa with the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church. They finished building a house for a missionary couple.

On their way home, John and Robin spent a week with friends in Belgium. John says the whole thing was a wonderful experience.

Mr. Ross Henderson, uncle of Misses Blanche, Freda and Ruth Henderson, passed away suddenly in Toronto in his 102nd year. He lived in his own home until last August. He was well known in the Gormley area and worked for the TTC for 45 years.

He was an elder at Bedford Park United Church for 60 years, where the funeral was held on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. John Pugh is home from York County Hospital in Newmarket.

Mrs. Ray Hawkins and Mrs. Bob Howard of Oshawa, visited Mr. and Mrs. Terry Atkinson at Atwood for a couple of days.

Mrs. Neil Sider, Mrs. Christine Crumb and baby Bradley of Welland, visited Mrs. Martha Wideman on Thursday.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Honsberger and family of Barrie visited his mother, Mrs. Ila Honsberger and her mother, Mrs. Deb Baker, on Sunday.
