Norwood notches winner in last second for Lindy's

The Stouffville Pee Wee C girls hockey team fell 4-2 to Mississauga in exhibition action last Saturday.

The Pee Wees, sponsored by Angies Eatery, fought back from an early 3-0 deficit to pull within a goal before Mississauga iced the contest with a third period marker.

Stouffville goals were scored by Jennifer Williams and Jennifer Turner, while assists went to Stephanie Summerhill, Kirsten Fraser, Jennifer Norwood and Lindsay Upton.

The two teams will meet again during the provincial playdowns, slated for Kingston at the end of March.

In other Whitchurch-Stouffville Girls Hockey Association action, Jennifer Norwood scored with only four seconds on the clock to give Lindy's Flowers a 4-3 win over Stouffville Bowling Centre in Junior Girls House League action Sunday.

The game-winner was Norwood's third marker of the game.

Lindy's had taken a 3-0 lead on Norwood's first two goals, and a single by Lindsay Upton. However, the Bowling Centre tied it up on a pair of goals by Cynthia McCaul and a single by Jennifer Williams.

Morgan Dubowski, with two, Jennifer Turner, Jill Villeneuve and Upton had assists for Lindy's, while Bowling set-ups went to Stephanie Summerhill and Amanda McDonald, with two each, and Kristi Ingram.

In other action, Julie Comito had a hat trick to help MPH Earthmoving earn a 3-3 tie with George Ross Photo.

Laura Winterstein, with two, and Janine Bates scored for George Ross, while assists were collected by Nicki Thornhill and Shyla Brennan.

MPH assists went to Kelly Ward, Kirsten Fraser and Melissa Dawson.

Kathy Tait and Cheryl Norton were strong in net for MPH and Ross respectively.

Betz ladies win at Newtonbrook hockey tourney

Debbie Coxworth and Gloria Mintz found the mark in an overtime shootout to give the Betz Pools Sr. C girls hockey team a 4-2 win over Niagara Falls and the championship of the Newtonbrook Women's Hockey Tournament recently.

The Stouffville ladies went undefeated in their four games enroute to the tourney title, but they had a real battle against Niagara.

Beth Freedman and Karen Brodie scored for Betz in regulation time in the final, with the shooting showdown necessary after five minutes of overtime failed to produce a winner.

Betz edged St. Catharines 2-1 in their opening match, with Mintz and Coxworth doing the sniping for the winners. Bonnie Hollingsworth performed solidly in goal for Stouffville.

The nimble goalie, who was named tourney MVP, registered a 6-0 shutout over Brockville in game two, with Mintz exploding for a quartet of goals. Coxworth and Barb Goudie had singles.

Betz beat the Toronto Flames 4-1 in the semifinals. Allyson Jacket, with two goals, Freedman and Coxworth scored for Stouffville.

In other action, the Betz girls blanked Mississauga 6-0 in the first round of the provincial playdowns. Stouffville markers went to Sharon McCormick and Brodie, with two each, Coxworth and Jamie Ferguson.

Dickinson, Jefferson pace Pee Wee Clippers

Chad Dickinson and Ryan Jefferson each fired a pair of goals to lead the Stouffville District Credit Union Pee Wee Clippers to a 6-2 win over Pickering in an exhibition contest recently.

Jason Reesor and Ryan Burkholder rounded out the Clippers scoring, with assists going to Reesor, with two, Dickinson, Burkholder, Geoff Smith, Colter Carcone, and John McKinnon.

Boyd red hot in goal as Stouffville Atoms win

Evan Boyd racked up two shutouts last week as the Boyd's Sports Atom Clippers went undefeated in three games.

The Stouffville puck crew hung a 4-0 whitewash on the Markham Winterhawks, tied Port Perry 3-3, then blasted Oak Ridges 10-0.

Robbie Spytz, Kyle Norton, Adam Crowder, and Ryan King scored for the Clippers against Markham, with assists coming from King, Tim Smart, Dan Tardella, Spytz, and Scott Assinck.

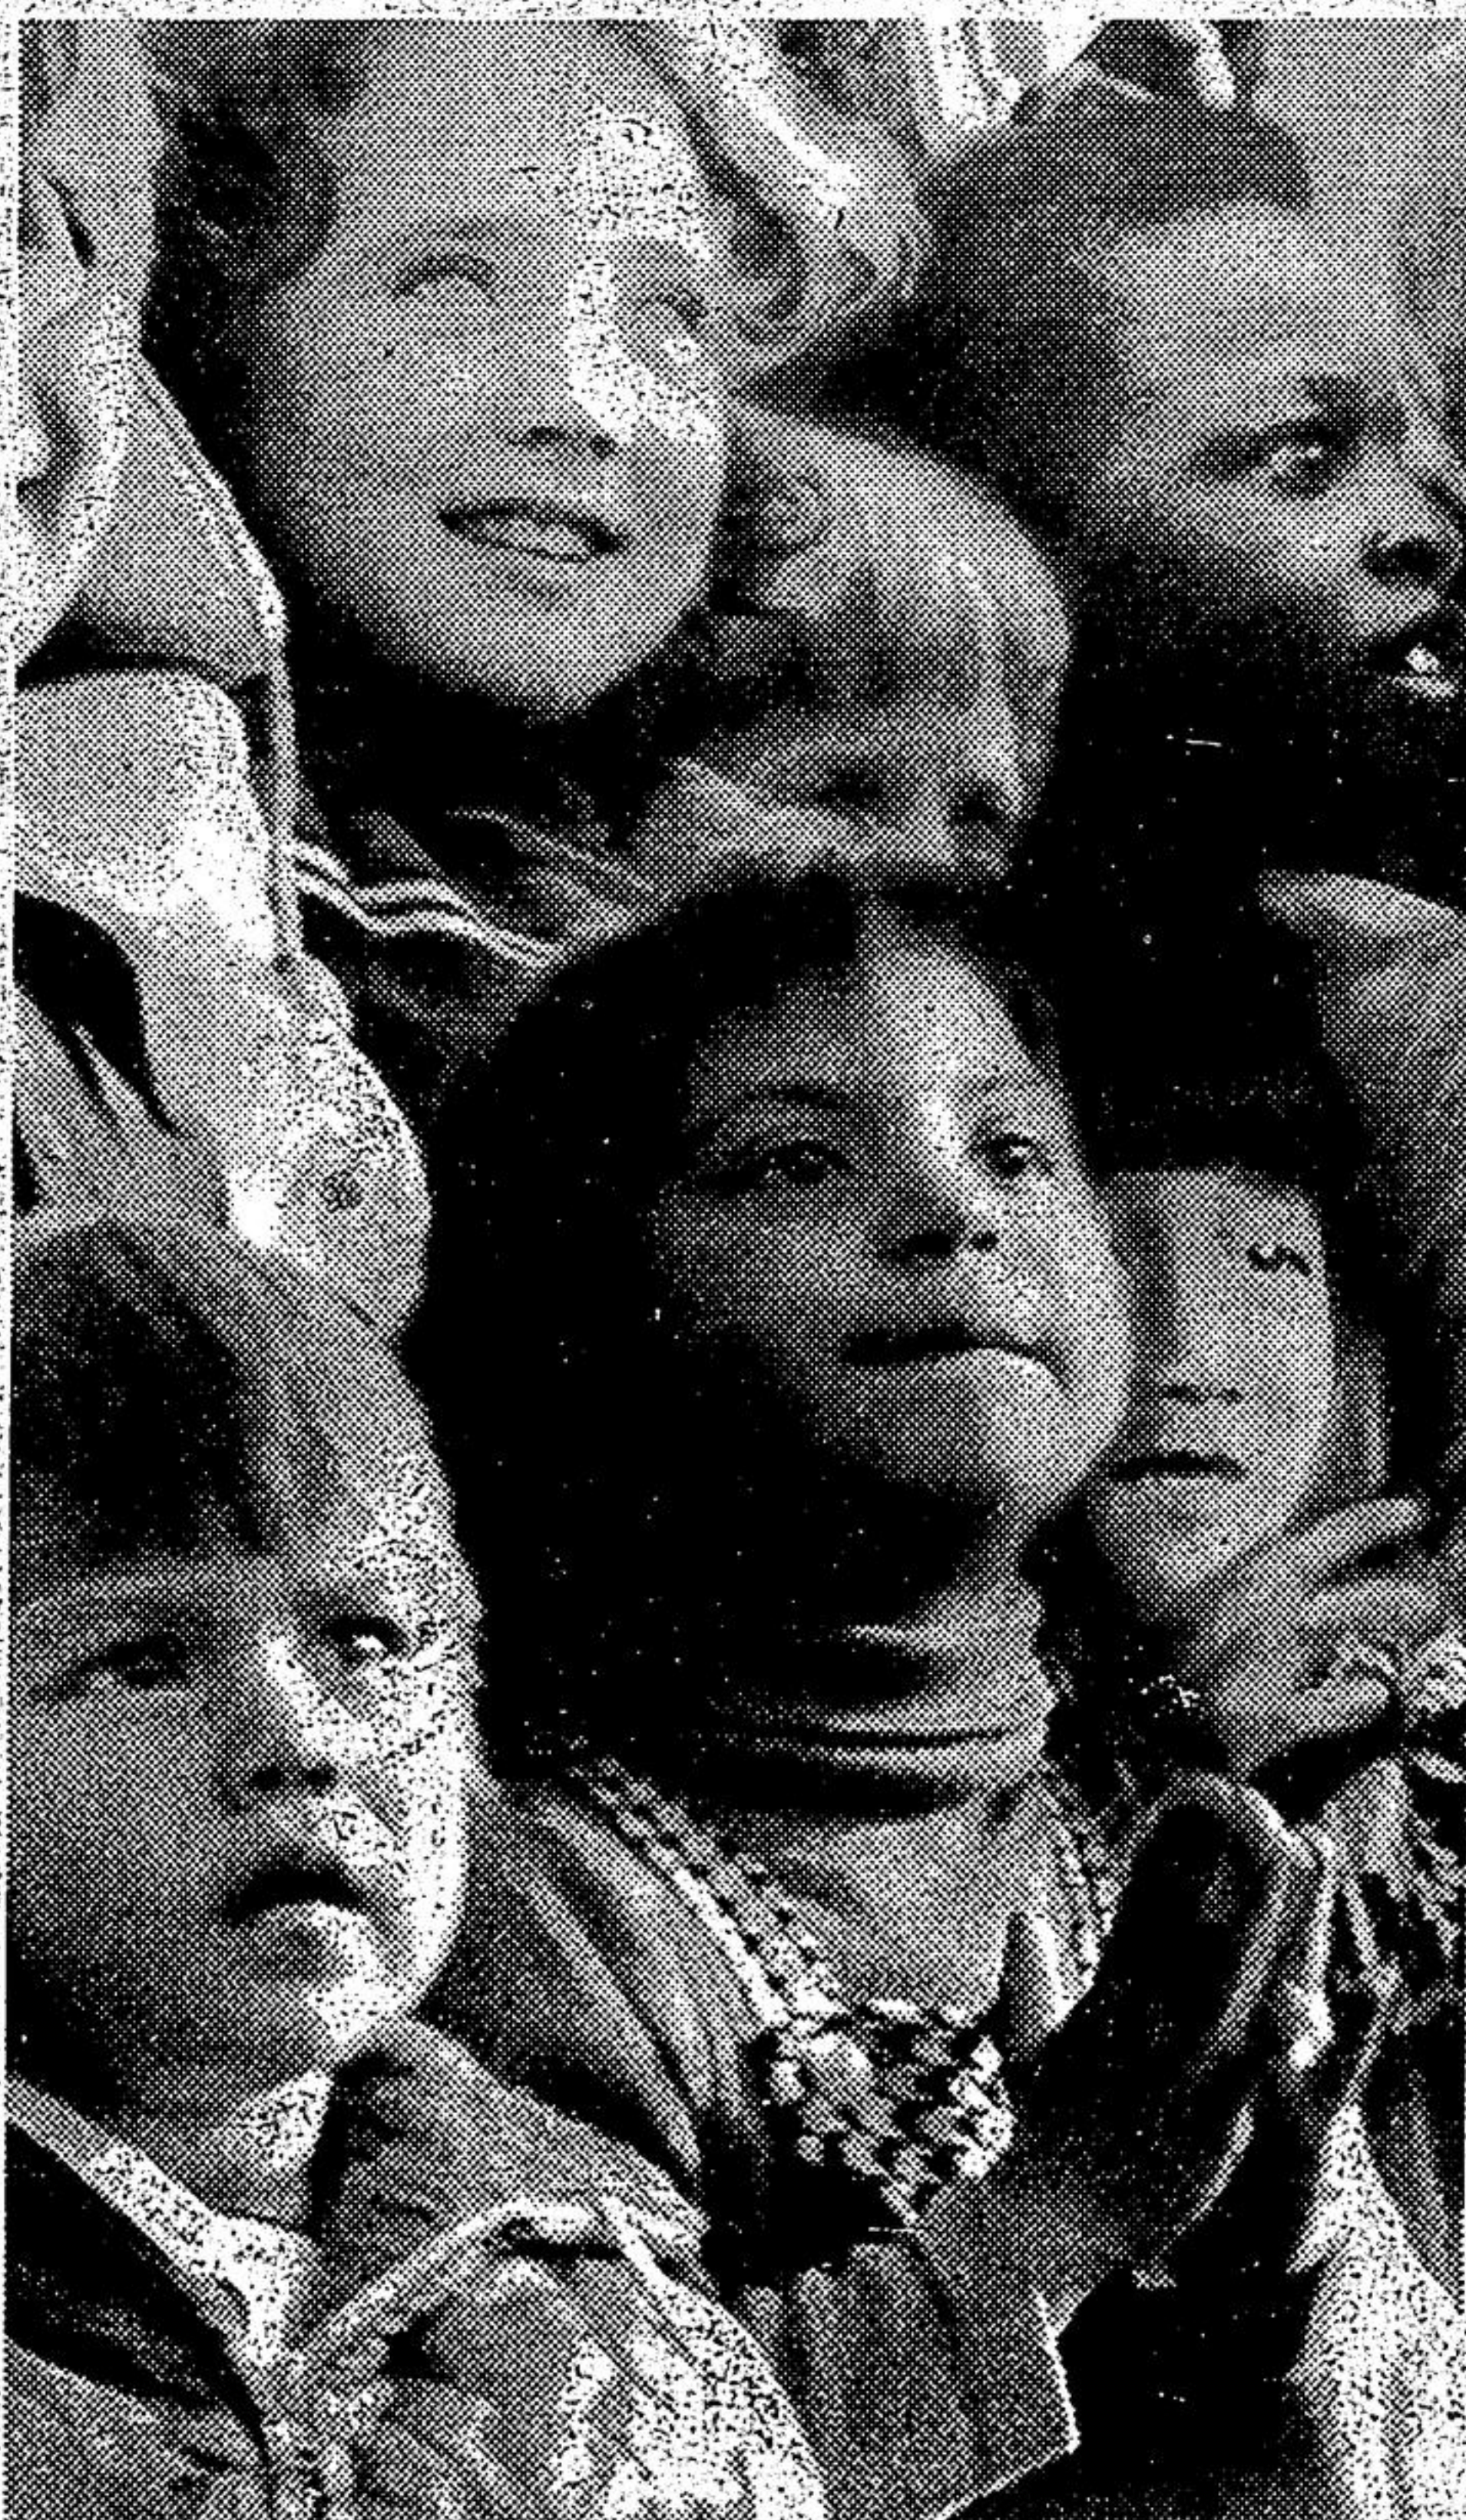

It was Smart, Assinck, and Norton hitting the net against Port Perry, while Crowder, Assinck, and Jeff Hassard drew assists.

Tardella, Smart, Assinck and Crowder had two goals each in the Clippers rout of Oak Ridges, with King and Spytz adding singles.

King set up four markers, Tardella and Andrew Hutchison two a piece, and single assists went to Hassard, Spytz, and Grahame Smith.
