Pet plan Area vets to sell tags

Whitchurch-Stouffville dog owners will find it more convenient to purchase 1990 dog tags, after Town building staff canvassed local veterinarians.

Two local animal doctors have agreed to sell 1990 dog licenses from their pet clinics, wrote Director of Building Bob Bennett to council in committee last Tuesday.

According to Mr. Bennett's memo, Dr. Margaret Hacking at Ballantrae Animal Hospital on Aurora Road west of Hwy. 48 and Dr. Brian Laing at the Town and Country Animal Hospital on Stouffville Sideroad west of Hwy 48 will sell dog tags.

The bylaw enforcement officer will distribute the licences and tags and will be responsible for revenue.

Staff recommends Drs. Hacking and Laing be reimbursed $5 for each tag or licence sold, for their services.
