Column was enjoyed

Dear Editor,
For everyone at Parkview, I wish to thank you sincerely for the very kind and gracious things you have to say about Parkview and its people in your column on April 4, 1990.

I especially like your phrase about the "magic that is brought about when caring people work together."

So many fine persons are a part of such caring at Parkview and included are residents, tenants, staff and the board of directors, as well as many, many community volunteers.

A clarification or two, if I may. It is not quite fair to my hard-working colleagues in management to say I am the Village

"overseer" per se. Sheila Jones is the Village Manager and Herb Diller is the Home for the Aged Administrator.

I have the privilege of serving as Executive Administrator, responsible to the board for the entire Parkview Services for Seniors complex.

Also, to say I am a farmer by trade is almost a derogation of the farming profession in this area.

For 20 years now my farming has consisted of the care of a few apple trees and helping my wife with her vegetable garden!

I would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank the many caring people in the community of Whitchurch-Stouffville who have helped make Parkview a "friendly" place.

Thank you again for your kind affirming words.

Sincerely,
Joe Nighswander
Parkview Executive Administrator

Uxbridge charitable cause benefitted from coverage

Dear Editor,

The Canadian Foodgrains Bank, Uxbridge Unit, would like to express to you and your staff, namely Doris Stewart, their appreciation for the coverage given us on our corn-bagging efforts in the week of March 5.

More than 175 volunteers bagged and loaded 6,000 bags of corn to be trucked to Hamilton, which will later be shipped to Angola.

The enthusiasm and availability of the volunteers show the desire to express their Christian response to hunger.

This is the fifth year that we have bagged corn for the CFGB and your help is sincerely appreciated.

Yours truly,
Don Asling

Much to offer

Services work

Dear Editor,

On behalf of the York-Durham Speech and Stroke Centre, I would like to thank you for the wonderful article written by Bruce Stapley and for the photos taken by Sjoerd Witteveen, which appeared in your February, 7 edition of the Tribune.

We at the centre were thrilled to receive such positive coverage and hope that articles such as this will make the community more aware of the services we have to offer.

Sincerely,
Janice Li, Secretary,
York-Durham
Speech and Stroke Centre

Track tourney was a success

Dear Editor,

On behalf of the Stouffville Amateur Hockey League, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the referees who donated their time to the recent Stouffville/Uxbridge Mayor's Challenge Cup Oldtimers hockey tournament.

Wayne Nugent, Bill Harmanson, Bruce Morin, Dave Gilmour, Don Reesor, Ian Boyd, Bob McKinnon and Dave Connell all helped out.

Special thanks also go to our timekeepers John McKinnon and Matt Turner.

I would like to mention also that John and Matt each donated $10.

All proceeds go to the Stouffville District Secondary School Track Fund.

To the players and the fans, thank you for making the tournament a success.

Sincerely,
Henry Stevens
President, SAHL
