

Graham takes top honors in Claremont photo contest

winning photo of the Carnival's snow golf tournament as seen through the mirrored sunglasses of participant Darron Kew. Another Claremont-area photo buff, Dr. Ron Myhr, took second and third prizes of $30 and $20. His two colorful parade shots were in keeping with the contest

theme: Carnival Fun in Claremont. Entries were judged by Tom Tsuji of Stouffville's Speedy Photo Image. The contest was sponsored by Ken Mulveny & Associates Photography and Rural Roots.

Claremont talent show

Singers, dancers and a number of other performers can strut their stuff at a talent show Saturday May 12 at Claremont Branch 483 of the Royal Canadian Legion. "Talent nights are always popular so we decided to try one at the legion," explained spokesman Frank Hendy of the event. "There'll be prizes as well as lots and lots of good music," he promised. Showtime starts at 8 p.m. Anyone wishing to take part in the talent show should contact Mr. Hendy at 649-5549 or Sue Johnson at 649-2295. Claremont Legion is located on Old Brock Road South in Claremont.
