

Home show '90

Home show has something for all

Home Show '90 will feature more than 70 handy home, travel, leisure and construction ideas.

The Chamber of Commerce's 1st annual home show promises to entertain local browsers throughout the three-day exhibition.

More

Visitors to the Rec Complex May 4, 5 and 6, will get more than they bargained for.

Not only will more than 70 local merchants offer enticing deals, hints, tips, ideas and information to browsers, but the event also features back-to-back entertainment, including fashion shows, dances, comedy acts and numerous draws and prizes.

Kick-off

Friday, May 4 the Chamber will kick off

Home Show '90 by offering free admission to seniors from 1 to 5 p.m.

Other main events include a Child Find finger printing opportunity Saturday from noon to 3 p.m. - a chance for parents to have their children identified by the organization to enable easy access in case a child is lost.

Gifts

Throughout the show, visitors have the opportunity to buy gift baskets for Mother's Day, as well as enter their names for some exciting prizes to be drawn.

Then on Sunday the Home Show will feature an A&P $200 shopping spree to be won.
