

Award winners

SAHL hands out hardware

Jets, Wings big winners

There was a familiar pattern to the awards presentation at the Stouffville Amateur Hockey League (SAHL) dinner-dance at Cedar Beach Saturday night.

First, it was the players from the Over-30 Division league champion G&R Flooring Jets coming up to the podium to receive their winners mugs, followed by the Over-40 title-winning Gallo Real Estate Red Wings.

Immediately afterwards, the procedure was repeated verbatim as both teams were presented with sweaters for their respective playoff victories.

Individual awards were also handed out, with Doug Todd winning the Over-30 scoring crown, while Bill Ormson and Don Lloyd shared the Over-40 version of same.

Dave Parrott and Larry Penny were acknowledged as the top goal tenders in the Over-30 and Over-40 Divisions respectively.

Most Valuable Player awards went to Bill Corner of the Gallo Real Estate Red Wings in the Over-40 Division, with the Stouffville Travel Canucks' Darcy Milligan taking the Over-30 MVP honors.

The Referee's Awards, selected by SAHL Referee-in-Chief Wayne Nugent, were given to Kim Kavluk for the Over-30 Division and jointly to Bill Hermanson and Elio Zafanieri in the Over-40 Division.

Ambrose Pullen, who is stepping down as coach of the Canadian Tire Black Hawks, was given a special Coach of the Decade award.

Outgoing SAHL President Henry Stevens was also presented with a plaque in recognition of service.
