

Lowery's triple paces impressive comeback by Stouffville Stingers

Allison Lowery's two-run triple capped a seven-run rally in the bottom of the seventh inning as the Stouffville Stingers ladies intermediate softball team beat Aurora 9-8 last Thursday at Stouffville Memorial Park.

The Stingers, down 8-2 heading into the home half of the final frame, got home runs from Debbie Gold and Barb Thompson in their final inning outburst, while Sheila Fockler and pitcher Kim McConnell stroked doubles.

McConnell, filling in for regular pitcher Denise Toole, was effective from the pitching rubber but was victimized by errors, said Stingers' coach Cliff Dunkeld.

"It was a great comeback, but we had made a few miscues that cost us earlier," said Dunkeld.

"But we needed the win, as we are fighting for second place with Bradford."

The Stingers, who have now won six in a row after dropping their first three contests, take on Bradford Thursday at 8:30 p.m. at Memorial Park.

On the weekend of July 6-8, the Stingers will host a league tournament.

Stouffville Soccer Spurs suffer season's first defeat

The Stouffville Spurs men's soccer team suffered its first defeat of the season recently, falling 2-0 to Muskoka in a game played in Bracebridge.

The Spurs managed to keep their opponents off the scoreboard until, with just under five minutes remaining in the game, Muskoka found the range. The Spurs pushed in an effort to tie it up, leaving themselves open for the Muskoka clincher.

"We were a little cramped after long bus ride up there," said Spurs manager Bill Perrie. "And we were late, so it was straight on to the field. But we'll beat them when they come down here to play us."

The loss left the Spurs in fourth place in the 10-team Newmarket and District Soccer League, with a record of one win, three ties, and a loss. Perrie said his team is still looking for a goalie, and that anyone who is interested should call him at 930-0010.
