

Response to Goodwood Lioness called 'tremendous'

ELSIE BOLAND
 Correspondent

The response to the Goodwood Lioness Club has been tremendous. If any local women are interested in joining, call Shirley Hurlbut at 640-3221.

Shirley has done a great job and plans to wake Goodwood up and put it on the map again.

Our sympathy goes to the Wallmer family on the passing of Mr. Wallmer. He had been at Green Gables Nursing Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mantle had their 50th wedding anniversary at the Goodwood Hall.

At one time, Clarence and his two brother lived down on the 3rd Conc.

A nice time was had by all at the anniversary.

Rev. Edith Ann was out to Goodwood recently and had the funeral for Mr. Wallmer, who was buried at Goodwood Cemetery.

A nice group of senior citizens met at Yvonne Yeates for a pot luck dinner and an afternoon of fun. Everyone had a great time.

We were pleasantly surprised when Mr. and Mrs. Munding came in to see us the other night.

A good time was had on Wednesday night when the Goodwood Hall was filled once more for euchre.

Winners for the men were Gord McGuckin, Evelyn Parish and Gord Wilson. Ladies winners were Ezella Harwood, Daisy Sellars and Betty Hockley. The next euchre is in two weeks.

On Tuesday, a pot luck dinner for the seniors was held at Goodwood Hall.

Everyone must have watched the Queen last weekend.

She gave a lovely speech on trying to get along with each through these trying times.
